SCOPE AND PURPOSE OF THIS REPORT

We understand that pursuant to the proposed Draft Scheme, the Management is contemplating to demerge the Commercial Vehicle Business ('Demerged Undertaking') from TML into TMLCV, under the provisions of Section 230 to 232 of the Companies Act, 2013, other applicable laws and rules issued thereunder, as may be applicable.

As per the Draft Scheme, we understand that the appointed Date for the proposed Demerger is 1st July 2025.

In accordance with the provisions of the Draft Scheme, we understand that as part of the Demerger, all assets and liabilities identified as pertaining to the Demerged Undertaking shall be transferred to the Resulting Company at values as appearing in the books of Demerged Company. In consideration of the transfer and vesting of the Demerged Undertaking from the Demerged Company to the Resulting Company in terms of the Draft Scheme, each shareholder of the Demerged Company shall be issued and allotted 1 (One) share in the Resulting Company credited as fully paid-up, of the same class of shares outstanding as held by such shareholder in the Demerged Company ('Share Entitlement Ratio').

We further understand that upon Demerger, the Resulting Company shall issue shares to the shareholders of the Demerged Company such that shareholding of the Resulting Company will mirror the shareholding of the Demerged Company, and the economic interest of the shareholders of the Demerged Company pre demerger shall remain the same post demerger. All shares of the Resulting Company will be listed and/ or admitted to trading on the BSE and NSE, which have nation-wide trading terminals.

Upon allotment of the equity shares by Resulting Company to the equity shareholders of Demerged Company, it is envisaged that the entire pre-scheme paid up share capital of the Resulting Company (held by the Demerged Company and its nominees) would be cancelled and reduced, without any consideration and 100% equity shareholding in the Resulting Company would be directly owned by the shareholders of Demerged Company in the same proportion as their shareholding in Demerged Company as of the record date. We further understand from the Management, that the Resulting Company was recently incorporated as a wholly owned subsidiary of the Demerged Company and has been capitalized by TML with a share capital of INR 10 lakhs (5,00,000 equity shares of face value of Re. 2 each).

For the aforesaid purpose, and based on the information made available by the Management, the Board of Directors of TML has appointed PwC BCS to submit:

(i) A Registered Valuer Report expressing an opinion on the Share Entitlement Ratio as proposed in the Draft Scheme, in connection with the proposed Demerger of the Demerged Undertaking from the Demerged Company to the Resulting Company, for the consideration of the Board of Directors of Companies in accordance with the generally accepted professional standards and;

(ii) To comment on the impact of the proposed Draft Scheme on the non-convertible debenture holders ('NCD holders') of TML.

It is clarified that any reference to this Report in any document and/ or filing with any tribunal/ judicial/ regulatory authorities/ government authorities/ stock exchanges/ courts/ shareholders/ professional advisors/ merchant bankers, in connection with the Transaction, shall not be deemed to be an acceptance by the Valuer of any responsibility or liability to any person/ party other than the Board of Directors of Companies.

The Report will be used by TML only for the purpose, as indicated in this Report, for which we have been appointed. The Report cannot be used or relied by the Clients for any other purpose

SHARE CAPITAL DETAILS

Tata Motors Limited

(i) ~INR 664.9 crores consisting of 3,324,658,528 ordinary shares of face value of INR 2/- each and;

(ii) ~INR 101.7 crores consisting of 508,502,896 'A' ordinary shares of face value of INR 2/- each.

The equity shareholding pattern of TML is as follows:

Ordinary Shares

Shareholders	Number of shares	% Share Holding
Promoter and Group	1,540,885,009	46.3%
Public	1,783,773,519	53.7%
Grand Total	3,324,658,528	100.0%

'A' Ordinary Shares

Shareholders	Number of shares	% Share Holding
Promoter and Group	39,002,948	7.7%
Public	469,499,948	92.3%
Grand Total	508,502,896	100.0%

Source: Based on information provided by Management as of 26 July 2024

Tata Motors Commercial Vehicles Limited

Tata Motors Commercial Vehicles Limited is a wholly owned subsidiary of Tata Motors Limited. As represented by the Management, the issued and subscribed equity share capital of TMLCV as of 26 July 2024 is INR 10 lakhs consisting of 5,00,000 equity shares of face value of INR 2/- each.

The Management has informed us that, without approval of the shareholders, there would not be any variation in the equity capital of companies till the proposed Draft Scheme becomes effective. Accordingly, our Report and opinion on the Share Entitlement Ratio considers the above shareholding pattern of the Companies.

SHARE ENTITLEMENT RATIO

As per the Draft Scheme, the Share Entitlement Ratio is proposed as below:

(i) 1 (One) share of TMLCV (face value of INR 2/- each fully paid up), for 1 (One) share of TML (face value of INR 2/- each fully paid up) of the same class of shares outstanding and as held by such shareholder in the TML on the Record Date as prescribed in the Draft Scheme.

We understand that the Demerger will be a 'mirror image' Demerger, i.e. all the shareholders of Demerged Company will become shareholders of the Resulting Company and the shareholding pattern of the Resulting Company shall mirror the shareholding pattern of the Demerged Company, on the Record Date. All shares of the Resulting Company will be listed and/or admitted to trading on the BSE and NSE, which have nation-wide trading terminals.

Accordingly, Demerger will not impact the economic and beneficial interest of the shareholders of the Demerged Company.

In view of the above and considering that all shareholders of the Demerged Company, upon Demerger, be the ultimate economic and beneficial owners of the Resulting Company and that upon allotment of equity shares by the Resulting Company in the proposed Share Entitlement Ratio, the economic and beneficial interest of the shareholders in the equity of the Resulting Company will be the same as it is in the equity of the Demerged Company; the above Share Entitlement Ratio is fair in relation to the Demerger.

The determination of a Share Entitlement Ratio is not a precise science and the conclusions arrived at in many cases will, of necessity, be subjective and dependent on the exercise of individual judgement. This concept is also recognized in judicial decisions. There is, therefore, no indisputable single Share Entitlement Ratio. While we have provided our view of the proposed Share Entitlement Ratio based on the information available to us and within the scope and constraints of our engagement, others may have a different opinion. The final responsibility for the determination of the share entitlement ratio at which the Transaction shall take place will be with the Board of Directors of Companies who should consider other factors such as their own assessment of the Transaction and input of other advisors.

Impact of the proposed Draft Scheme on the NCD holders of TML

It may be noted that certain NCDs of the Demerged Co will be transferred to the Resulting Company on the same terms including coupon rate, tenure, redemption price and quantum pursuant to the demerger of the Demerged Undertaking (as defined in the Draft Scheme) from the Demerged Company into the Resulting Company as set out in the Draft Scheme.

The management of the Resulting Company and the Demerged Company have provided us their outlook of operating and financial cashflows. Further, it is understood from the Management that considering the financial ratios and business performance, Management expectation is that the credit ratings of Demerged Company and Resulting Company upon scheme coming into effect are expected to remain same.

Based on the outlook of operating and financial cashflows of the Resulting Company and Demerged Company and our high-level analysis, the Demerged Company and Resulting Company would be able to meet their respective interest and repayment obligations towards the holders of such NCD.

- In consideration of the transfer and vesting of the Demerged Undertaking from the Demerged Company to the Resulting Company in terms of this Draft Scheme, the Valuer has arrived at "Share Entitlement Ratio" for demerger as follows:

  1 (one) share of the Resulting Company (face value of INR 2/- each fully paid up), for 1 (one) share of the Demerged Company (face value of INR 2/- each fully paid up) of the same class of shares outstanding and as held by such shareholder in the Demerged Company on the record date as prescribed in the Draft Scheme.

7. Such other information and explanations / clarifications as required, and which have been provided by the Management including Management Representations with respect to Proposed Demerger.

8. Such other Information received during discussion with the registered valuer, if any.

2 VIEW ON FAIRNESS OF THE TRANSACTION

As understood from the Draft Scheme of Arrangement shared by the Company and Valuation Report received from PwC dated August 01, 2024, upon the Draft Scheme being effective, all the shareholders of TML would also become the shareholders of TMLCV and their shareholding in TMLCV would mirror their existing shareholding in TML prior to the demerger. All shares of TMLCV will be listed and/or admitted to trading on the BSE and NSE, which have nation-wide trading terminals.

In accordance with Regulation 37 and 59A of the SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015 and the relevant SEBI Master Circulars thereto, based on our examination of the Valuation Report received from registered valuer, such other information/undertakings/representations provided to us by the Management and our high level analysis and evaluation of such information and subject to the scope limitations as mentioned hereinabove and to the best of our knowledge and belief, we are of the opinion that the recommendation made by the registered valuer of the Share Entitlement Ratio is fair which is as under:

The Share Entitlement Ratio for the proposed demerger of Demerged Undertaking of TML into TMLCV is as under:

1 (one) share of the Resulting Company (face value of INR 2/- each fully paid up), for 1 (one) share of the Demerged Company (face value of INR 2/- each fully paid up) of the same class of shares outstanding and as held by such shareholder in the Demerged Company on the record date as prescribed in the Draft Scheme.

Consideration of factors for opining on the comments on the impact of the Draft Scheme on NCD holders:

- It may be noted from the information received from the Company and Valuation Report of the Valuer, certain NCDs of Demerged Company might be transferred to the Resulting Company and such transfer would be on existing terms including coupon rate, tenure, redemption price and quantum pursuant to the demerger of the Demerged Undertaking (as defined in the Draft Scheme) from the Demerged Company into the Resulting Company as set out in the Draft Scheme.
- The Management of the Company has provided us brief outlook of cashflows of Demerged and Resultant Company. On the basis of key projection numbers made by the Management on Resulting Company & Demerged Company, it is understood that the Demerged Company & Resulting Company will meet the interest and repayment obligations of such NCD holders of TML.
- Further, it is understood from the Management that considering the financial ratios and business performance, management expectation is that the credit ratings of Demerged Company & Resulting Company upon the Draft Scheme coming into effect is expected to remain same.
- Hence, based on the foregoing considerations, examination of the Valuation Report, such other information / undertakings / representations provided to us by the Management and our broad analysis of such information and subject to the scope limitations as mentioned hereinabove, we are of the opinion that the economic interest of NCD holders of TML is not expected to be adversely affected pursuant to the proposed demerger.

Yours Sincerely,

For SBI Capital Markets Limited

Auditor's Responsibility

6. Pursuant to the requirements of Regulation 37 and Regulation 59A of the SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015, our responsibility is to provide a limited assurance that nothing has come to our attention that causes us to believe that:

   - the pre-transfer net worth amounts in the Statement have not been accurately extracted from the unaudited financial information of the Company as at and for the period from 23 June 2024 (date of incorporation) till 30 June 2024;

   - the post-transfer provisional net worth amounts in the Statement have not been determined on the basis of note 41 of the audited condensed financial statements of the Demerged Company as at and for the period ended 30 June 2024 and correctly determined considering the proposed accounting treatment in the books of the Company; and

   - the computation of pre-transfer net worth and post-transfer provisional net worth in the Statement is not arithmetically correct and is not in accordance with the basis of computation set out in the Statement.

7. We have performed the following procedures in respect of the Statement:

   a) We have been provided by the Company's management with a certified true copy of the Proposed Scheme, to be filed by the Company with the NCLT and other regulatory authorities including Regional Director, MCA and we have read the same and noted the impact of the proposed accounting treatment as per Paragraph 18 of Part II of the Proposed Scheme in the books of the Company;

8. The condensed standalone financial statements of the Demerged Company have been audited by us, on which we issued unmodified audit opinion dated 1 August 2024. Our audit of these standalone financial statements was conducted in accordance with the Standards on Auditing and other applicable authoritative pronouncements issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India ('ICAI'). Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement.

9. The procedures performed in a limited assurance engagement vary in nature and timing from, and are less in extent than for, a reasonable assurance engagement and consequently, the level of assurance obtained in a limited assurance engagement is substantially lower than the assurance that would have been obtained had a reasonable assurance engagement been performed. As part of this engagement, we have not performed any procedures by way of audit or review.

10. We conducted our examination of the Statement in accordance with the Guidance Note on Reports or Certificates for Special Purposes issued by the ICAI. The Guidance note requires that we comply with the ethical requirements of the Code of Ethics issued by the ICAI.

- the post-transfer provisional net worth amounts in the Statement have not been determined on the basis of note 41 of the audited condensed financial statements of the Demerged Company as at and for the period ended 30 June 2024 and correctly determined considering the proposed accounting treatment in the books of the Company; and

(B) RATIONALE AND OVERVIEW OF THE SCHEME

1. Tata Motors is directly and indirectly through its subsidiaries and joint ventures, engaged inter alia in the business of design, development, manufacture, and sale of a wide range of commercial, passenger and electric vehicles (including offering an extensive range of integrated, smart and e-mobility solutions), within India and abroad.

2. Over the past few years, the Commercial Vehicles Business (as defined hereinafter) and the Passenger Vehicles Business (as defined hereinafter) have delivered a strong performance by successfully implementing distinct strategies. The Scheme (as defined hereinafter) is being proposed to, amongst others, separate the Commercial Vehicles Business from the Passenger Vehicles Business through:

   (i) Demerger of Commercial Vehicles Business from the Demerged Company to the Resulting Company; and

   (ii) Merger of the Amalgamating Company undertaking the Passenger Vehicles Business (as defined hereinafter) with the Amalgamated Company.

3. The effectiveness of the Scheme would result in creation of two listed companies, forming part of the Tata Group, with identical shareholding (including common promoters) with the Resulting Company housing the Commercial Vehicles Business and the Amalgamated Company housing the Passenger Vehicles Business. This will empower the respective businesses to pursue their respective strategies to deliver higher growth with greater agility while reinforcing accountability.

4. The proposed Scheme would be in the best interests of the Amalgamated Company, the Resulting Company, the Amalgamating Company and, their respective shareholders, employees, creditors and other stakeholders for the below reasons:

   (i) The distinctive profile and established business model of the Commercial Vehicles Business and Passenger Vehicles Business makes it suitable to be housed in separately listed entities, allowing sharper strategic focus in pursuit of their independent value creation trajectories;

(ii) The Scheme would result in better and efficient control and management for the Commercial Vehicles Business and the Passenger Vehicles Business and would further empower the respective businesses to pursue their respective strategies to deliver growth with greater agility while reinforcing accountability;

(iii) The Scheme would unlock value for the overall-business portfolio through price-discovery of the Amalgamated Company and the Resulting Company for existing shareholders and shall entail direct holding of marketable securities therein;

(iv) The Scheme could lead to the right operating architecture for both companies with sharper focus on their individual business strategies and clear capital allocation, in alignment with their respective value creation journeys; and

(v) Separately listed companies will attract specific set of investors for their business profile, and consequently, encourage focused capital market outcomes.

5. Accordingly, this Scheme is pursuant to the provisions of Sections 230 to 232 and other applicable provisions of the Act (as defined hereinafter) and inter alia provides for the following:

(i) demerger, transfer and vesting of the Demerged Undertaking (as defined hereinafter), comprising of the Commercial Vehicles Business, from the Demerged Company into the Resulting Company on a going concern basis, and issue of shares by the Resulting Company to the shareholders of the Demerged Company, in accordance with Share Entitlement Ratio (as defined hereinafter) in consideration thereof, in accordance with the provisions of Section 2(19AA) and other relevant provisions of the Income Tax Act (as defined hereinafter); and

(ii) amalgamation of the Amalgamating Company with the Amalgamated Company with an objective of consolidating the Passenger Vehicles Business with the Amalgamated Company in accordance with the provisions of Section 2(1B) and other relevant provisions of the Income Tax Act and consequent dissolution of the Amalgamating Company without being wound up; and

(iii) various other matters consequential or otherwise integrally connected therewith in the manner set out in this Scheme.

Chairman's message

N Chandrasekaran
Chairman and Non-Executive Director

"In the first phase of this multi-year journey, I am pleased to report that your Company has delivered an excellent performance in FY24 with all automotive verticals delivering on their strategies leading to multiple achievements."

Dear Shareholders,

It is my privilege to present to you the Integrated Annual Report of Tata Motors Limited for FY24.

The global geo-political scenario continues to be tense with continuing military conflicts. These have created immense hardships for the affected people and also resulted in supply chain disruptions. As the year draws to a close, the economic scenario is stabilising with global growth estimated to be around 3% during the next couple of years. The coordinated actions by the central banks have also helped bring down inflation.

The structural shifts that we called out last year are continuing to evolve. These are i) Energy transition–irreversible move to green mobility, ii) Rebalancing of supply chains to achieve resiliency and iii) Digital acceleration with Artificial Intelligence and Machine Learning becoming mainstream.

All-time high revenue

26.6% ↑

₹4,37,928 crore

With the turnaround at Tata Motors, the Company is embracing these shifts from a position of strength and confidence.

In the first phase of this multi-year journey, I am pleased to report that your Company has delivered an excellent performance in FY24 with all automotive verticals delivering on their strategies leading to multiple achievements. The Company has successfully navigated through many challenges this year including a successful migration to the BS VI Phase II emission norms in India, geo-political turbulence leading to supply chain disruptions and global slowdown in auto sales. All the three businesses – Commercial Vehicles (CV), Passenger Vehicles (PV) and JLR, delivered remarkable improvement in performance across metrices – brand health, customer experience, financials, product innovation, and employee engagement.

On a consolidated basis, the business delivered several highs - Net revenue of ₹ 4,37,928 crore, EBITDA of ₹ 62,798 crore, PBT [before exceptional items (bei)] of ₹ 28,932 crore and auto free cash flow (after investment and interest) of ₹ 26,925 crore. Our India automotive business is now debt-free, and the Company is on track to make JLR debt-free in FY25.

Due to this strong performance, the Board has recommended a final dividend of ₹ 3 per share to ordinary shareholders and ₹ 3.1 per share to DVR holders and a special dividend of ₹ 3 per share to ordinary shareholders and ₹ 3.1 per share to DVR holders, both subject to your approval.

Now, I would like to take you through the opportunities ahead and imperatives for each of our businesses.

Commercial Vehicles

In Commercial Vehicles, the focus on profitable growth resulted in the business recording an annual revenue of ₹ 78,791 crore in FY24 growing by 11.3% vs FY23 and PBT (bei) of ₹ 6,102 crore growing by around 90% over last year. Apart from Heavy Trucks, Intermediate Trucks, Small Commercial Vehicles, Buses and International Business, the Company is focused on growing its Non-Vehicular business (spares, service etc.), incubating Smart Mobility (EV mobility solutions for cities) and Digital business (digital solutions for the truck and trip ecosystem).

The growth in this industry is linked to the GDP growth of the country and as such there is a multi-decade growth opportunity. Tata Motors' right to win is significant as it has a strong market presence built over many decades, a redoubtable brand, a robust technological backbone, and a comprehensive portfolio. The business model is sound with healthy margins and good operating leverage.

Over the next phase, the business will focus on driving the following – Revenue growth, improving EBITDA, strong free cash flows, strong Return on Capital Employed, technology and brand leadership. Apart from vehicular sales, the business will also focus on vehicle parc linked businesses like spares, digital and smart mobility solutions which will help reduce the volatility of the vehicle sales business. This should help drive consistent value accretive growth in the coming years.

Passenger and Electric Vehicles (India)

A record performance for the third successive year had the business register annual sales of 5,73,541 units (up 6% vs FY23) and retail sales (up 8.4% vs FY23, Vahan-based). Sharp focus on emission-friendly technologies improved the penetration of CNG and electric vehicles to 29% in the overall portfolio. In EVs, the business continued to lead the way with 70%+ market share. Surpassing the cumulative EV production of 150,000 vehicles, a milestone achieved by few car manufacturers globally, 73,844 EVs were sold during the year to register a growth of 47.5% vs FY23. The top two SUVs sold during the year In India – Nexon & Punch, proudly sported the TATA logo. The business recorded its highest-ever turnover with an annual revenue of ₹ 52,353 crore, growing by 9.4% over FY23. It also became more profitable with a healthy improvement in EBIT margins by 100 bps and the PV business continued to be free cash flow positive.

India is well on track to exceed the 5m vehicle sales mark in passenger vehicles over the next few years from the 4.1m volumes clocked last year. Despite being the second largest market in the world, India is well behind China which is 6x our market size. India's vehicle penetration, at about 30 vehicles per 1,000 population, is well below global norms and is expected to continue to increase. Tata Motors is well placed to further strengthen its market position and tap into this growth opportunity.

Over the next phase, the PV business will focus on the following – Market beating growth, improving EBITDA, positive free cash flows, enhanced customer experience, technology, and brand leadership. The competitive intensity in this portfolio will remain high and the business will continue to invest in products, platforms, electrical & electronic architectures, and vehicle software to remain competitive. The business will also focus on significantly improving customer experience and enhancing product quality. The EV business will focus on driving up penetration through multiple product launches, focus on market development, charging network enhancements and continuing to introduce aspirational product features.

JLR

Following three years of supply constraints due to semiconductor shortages, inflation, energy crisis and geopolitical instability, JLR has firmly re-established its financial stability in FY24 and is successfully laying the foundations for the next chapter of its Reimagine strategy. It unveiled a new 'House of Brands' approach and the new look of the JLR corporate identity to accelerate the delivery of its vision of being the proud creators of modern luxury. The business recorded its highest-ever annual revenue of £29 billion (+27%), PBT (bei) of £2.2 billion and a record free cashflow of £2.3 billion in FY24.

The premium luxury market is a strong, resilient, and aspirational market position that requires a strong brand heritage, stunning products, cutting edge technology and an intuitive, personalised customer experience. JLR is well on its way to further strengthen its credentials through its cult British brands of Range Rover, Defender, Discovery and Jaguar.

Over the next phase, JLR will continue to double down on its journey to become a premium luxury OEM, deliver strong revenue growth, improve profitability further, drive positive free cash flows, focus on enhanced customer love and continue to invest in products and technologies. There is an exciting range of products lined up to be launched over the next 3 years that needs to be delivered successfully. The first electric Range Rover launches later this year, and there are further EVs lined up in the coming years including the all-electric Jaguar. JLR shall continue to invest in products, platforms, electrical & electronic architectures and vehicle software to provide a world class in-cabin and all-round customer experience to our discerning clientele.

To enable execution of these well differentiated strategies and to further empower each business to pursue it purposefully with greater agility and accountability, the Board has proposed the demerger of the Company into two separate listed companies housing A) the Commercial Vehicles business and its related investments in one entity and B) the Passenger Vehicles businesses including PV, EV, JLR and its related investments in another entity. This will also help secure the considerable synergies across PV, EV and JLR particularly in the areas of EVs, autonomous vehicles, and vehicle software. This will lead each Company

Shaping sustainable mobility

Sustainability is at the centre of our business strategy. There has been an increased focus from various stakeholders toward sustainable business practices. As a responsible business and as part of the Tata Group, Tata Motors is committed to significantly reducing its GHG emissions to ultimately achieve net zero emissions.

Commercial Vehicles

Tata Motors, has taken a lead in the electric mobility space, with over 2,600 electric buses now plying on Indian roads. We were the first in the industry to receive India's first auto PLI certificate in the four-wheeled goods vehicle category (N1 – Tata Ace EV models) and for the 12m fully-built bus in the M3 category.

Taking India ahead on the global map, we have embarked on our electrification journey, launching Tata Ace EV in Nepal, commencing our electrification endeavours abroad.

We have introduced Hydrogen Fuel Cell-powered buses – the first of their kind – to Indian Oil Corporation Ltd., underscoring a strategic collaboration aimed at reducing carbon emissions and promoting green energy in public transportation. By leveraging hydrogen fuel cell technology, these buses represent a significant advancement in reducing environmental impact and advancing cleaner, more efficient transportation options across the country. This initiative aligns with India's broader goals of transitioning to renewable energy sources and combating climate change, setting a precedent for future developments in the industry.

Passenger Vehicles

As India transitions towards a greener, more sustainable future, Tata Motors is at the forefront of the electrification revolution. As a more sustainable offering, our EVs are enabled with innovative technologies and a digital design language, which has a strong appeal among Indian customers. We aspire to pave the way for the electrification and mainstream EVs in India by offering the widest EV portfolio, addressing barriers to adoption and ecosystem enablement.

JLR

In February 2021, Jaguar Land Rover business announced a change in direction under its new Reimagine strategy. At the core of this is the rapid electrification of both Jaguar and Land Rover. JLR aims to achieve net zero carbon emissions across its supply chain, products, and operations by 2039 with all brands offering pure-electric options by 2030. In December 2023, JLR opened the waiting list for the new Range Rover Electric and it gained 13,000 signatures in the first 28 days of going live. Range Rover Electric will lead the way for electric propulsion capability, refinement and luxury travel, with the first vehicle prototypes now deployed at some of the world's most challenging test locations. The all-electric drivetrain is now being put through its paces at extremes of temperatures, from -40°C in the Arctic Circle, to +50°C in the searing deserts of the Middle East. Jaguar is set to become all electric in 2025. The first of the three reimagined Jaguars will be a 4-door GT, with a range up to 700 km (430 miles) with prices starting from £100,000.

Operating context

With our strategic initiatives firmly in place, we are well-positioned to capitalise on the evolving global economic dynamics, leveraging India's economic growth.

Key trends

Strong domestic demand

According to IMF forecasts, India's GDP growth is projected to remain consistently strong at 6.8% in 2024 and 6.5% in 2025. This strength is attributed to sustained domestic demand and a growing working-age population. India maintains its pole position among the fastest growing economies globally. The Government of India recently announced in the interim budget, its intent to increase capex spending by 11% to 11.11 lakh crore, signalling a commitment to infrastructure development. This sharp focus on improving productivity in both manufacturing and agriculture sectors, coupled with a promising growth outlook, bodes well for overall demand creation in the economy for both Commercial and Passenger Vehicles.

Evolving consumer preference

As demographics shift, we see a rising base of young and aspirational consumer emerging. Their preference for safe, smart and feature-rich vehicles with greener powertrains is resulting in a growing demand for SUVs and high-end variants. In the Commercial Vehicles business, the industry dynamics are changing with customers preferring performance-oriented vehicles that are more efficient, offer benefits of connectivity, support and service – all offered at the lowest total Cost of Ownership (TCO). The industry is fast transitioning from being purely an Original Equipment Manufacturer (OEM) to becoming a holistic provider of related services and solutions to enhance overall productivity and service a wide variety of applications for both cargo and public transport.

Sustainability

The focus on sustainable business practices has increased from all stakeholders. Our efforts towards shaping a responsible business have become more intense and holistic. Increasing the decarbonising of vehicles and the materials used to build them, the rising use of energy drawn from renewable sources, ensuring water neutrality, moving towards a circular economy and a scientific approach, to preserving nature and biodiversity are amongst the several pioneering initiatives we have adopted. We are scaling up our endeavours toward making the future of mobility sustainable.

Infrastructure

New technologies need appropriate infrastructure to become mainstream. Even as vehicle range anxiety is being addressed with suitable product advancements, the lack of a widespread public charging infrastructure is emerging as a hindrance to mass adoption of EVs in India. To address this and promote the adoption of other smarter and greener technologies, we are working with the relevant set of diverse stakeholders to develop enabling ecosystems across the country to accelerate the appeal and adoption of cleaner and greener mobility.

Executive Director,
Tata Motors Limited

Dear Shareholders,

I hope this letter finds you in good health.

FY24 was a tale of two halves for the Indian Commercial Vehicle (CV) industry while it transitioned to BS VI Phase II emission norms on April 1, 2023. H1 began on a promising note with sales volumes increasing across most segments. However, the combined effects of a high base, state elections and the upcoming general elections moderated growth in H2. Led by the government's thrust on infrastructure building and increased activity in e-commerce, construction and people mobility, the industry saw sustained demand for heavy trucks and passenger carriers through the year, resulting in sales growing by 3% and 28%, respectively. Overall, the CV industry grew by a modest 2% as demand in the ILMCV, SCV cargo and pickup segments shrunk, bringing to fore the cyclical nature of our industry.

The realignment of our CV business into eight business verticals matured during the year with enhanced financial focus. With a synergised backend and a fully equipped front end, each business line is independently charting its growth path, with clear targets set to track financial and market outcomes.

Delivering value consistently

Tata Motors' domestic CV business continued to offer more value to customers through superior BS VI Phase II product range and a bouquet of customised value-added services, thereby delivering improved realisations. The CV business recorded its highest-ever quarterly and annual revenue in Q4 and in FY24, respectively, with annual revenue growing by a substantial 11.3% over FY23. A sharper focus on profitable growth resulted in highest ever EBIT (of ₹ 6,479 crore) growing by a healthy 77% over FY23. Building on these results, we will continue with our efforts to achieve a more resilient and optimised business structure. Concurrently, we will strive to grow market share profitably across product segments by consistently delivering customer value through innovative products and value-added services.

We launched 140+ products and 700+ variants for passenger and cargo transportation to fulfil the growing demand for safer, smarter, and greener mobility solutions. We deployed 1,100+ E-buses under the CESL tender along with 12 fully equipped depots; ramped up Ace EV retails multifold; introduced fuel cell electric buses in partnership with IOCL; and initiated the real-world deployment of electric heavy trucks to Tata Steel's fleet. During the year, we won several prestigious awards acknowledging the excellence of our products, services, solutions, initiatives, and people.

As part of the digital marketing approach, key initiatives were implemented, considering product, region, and language variables, with an aim to maximise reach and efficiency. Influencer advocacy, tailored by products, regions, use cases, and specific content planks, achieved 127 million video views and 5.2 million engagements – a record for any CV brand. As a result of these digital efforts and appreciation for BS VI Phase II products, we achieved the highest-ever Net Promoter Score. Overall channel satisfaction levels were maintained with sustained throughput and high level of engagement.

Tata Motors' domestic CV business continued to offer more value to customers through superior BS VI Phase II product range and a bouquet of customised value-added services, thereby delivering improved realisations.

₹78,791 crore
Highest-ever revenue

International business delivered marginal growth and maintained market share across the geographies, such as SAARC, Middle East and North Africa (MENA), with healthy financials, despite a subdued microeconomic environment.

Ensuring peace of mind for customers

The downstream spares and service business continued the growth momentum while focusing on delivering customer convenience through reduced turnaround time and improved deliveries. E-Dukaan, our 'Direct to Customer' digital storefront for spares, delivered an impressive 3.5x growth.

TML Smart City Mobility Solutions successfully deployed 1,100+ E-buses across four cities including ensuring E-bus operations in sub-zero conditions. With 2,000+ E-buses on the road, 14 crore cumulative kilometres covered, and 95% availability, we continue to make commuting safer, comfortable and convenient for millions of passengers every day. We are actively pursuing key structural interventions from the government, such as payment security mechanism and leasing arrangement, which we will leverage by participating in future E-bus tenders while we continue to generate demand from the retail segment.

Fleet Edge, our connected vehicle platform is now deployed in over six lakh trucks. This provides us the unique capability to offer curated data and AI-enabled services, such as 'Mileage Sarathi' and help customers run their business more efficiently.

The thrust on digital gained significant momentum during the fiscal. During the year, we acquired 26.79% stake in 'Freight Tiger,' a platform that provides end-to-end logistics value chain solutions for cargo movement in India. This strategic investment will accelerate steps to drive effectiveness and efficiency in the truck and freight ecosystem.

Shaping a responsible business

We made decisive progress in our sustainability journey across all three pillars of Aalingana – Net Zero, Circularity and Biodiversity. In line with our 2045 net zero goal and the science-based approach, we aligned the product strategy across all business lines to a decarbonisation trajectory and thus accelerated our efforts towards faster adoption of EVs, hydrogen-based vehicles and renewable energy. We received FAME and PLI certifications for Ace EV and 12m E-bus models, first in their respective category. We unveiled state-of-the-art R&D facilities for hydrogen internal combustion engine at our Engineering Research Centre in Pune, as well as operationalised a Hydrogen ICE engine manufacturing facility within Tata Cummins.

Our efforts to promote circularity gained momentum with the launch of the Circular Economy framework named TATVA, an operating system that systematically embeds the principles of circularity across all parts of the business along the four pathways of Energy, Material, Lifetime and Utilisation. Furthermore, to ensure an effective end-of-life management, five vehicle scrappage facilities were operationalised under the Tata Re.Wi.Re brand. Also, we are on track to become net positive on water and achieve 100% usage of renewable electricity in line with our sustainability roadmap.

In biodiversity, we have assessed our operation sites for their rich biodiversity value and are now deploying scientific tools to manage these habitats to enhance their conservation and resilience for decades to come. We have also become a member of the Science Based Targets Network for Nature Corporate Engagement Program.

Looking ahead, I expect FY25 to be yet another exciting year for the CV industry, given the favourable macroeconomic context, especially in the domestic market, and I am confident that the future holds immense potential. Tata Motors' CV business has been delivering strong operational and financial performance. The proposed demerger will help us improve focus and make us more agile to capitalise on opportunities in the CV market globally. Our focus will be to create a world-class Company operating in the CV space, providing superior experience to our customers, better growth prospects for our employees, and enhanced value for our shareholders.

I thank you for your continuing interest, commitment, and support to Tata Motors.

Warm regards,
Girish Wagh

External environment

Shift to BS VI Phase II emission norms

FY24 started on a positive note for the Indian CV industry while it shifted to BS VI Phase II emission norms from April 1, 2023. The first half started optimistically with a surge in sales volumes across most business segments. However, the second half saw a moderation in growth due to the combined impact of a high base, elections in five states, and the impending general elections.

Our CV business transitioned its entire portfolio to BS VI Phase II with improved competitiveness. In FY24, 140+ products and 700+ variants were introduced.

How the domestic CV industry performed

The Indian CV industry (wholesale) volumes at 10,02,846 units grew by 2% in FY24 over FY23. However, registration volumes grew by 4% y-o-y in FY24. The growth was primarily led by M&HCVs (+4% over FY23) and continued robust recovery in passenger carriers (+37% in FY24 over FY23). Improving fleet utilisation, up-tick in road construction, and increase in cement consumption catalysed demand in the M&HCV segment. Freight rates continue to improve slowly but consistently, with a good level of utilisation. The repo rates remained unchanged during FY24 and this status quo continues for Q1 FY25.

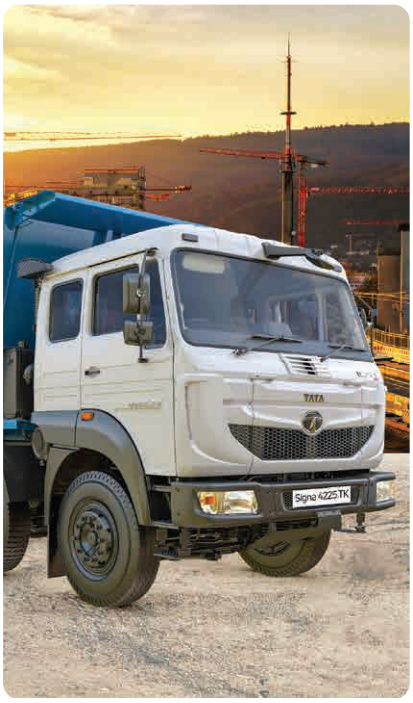
Aluminium price surge despite mild decline in material costs

Ferrous metals experienced a modest softening in Q4 FY24 on account of the reduction in input material costs, specifically coking coal, and weakening global demand. Barring aluminium, which saw a price increase, other non-ferrous metals, such as lead, copper, PGM metals, stabilised during this period. Geopolitical tensions resulting in rise in oil prices may somewhat impact commodity prices in the future. Disruptions in the Red Sea supply chain impacted lead time and logistics cost marginally.

Resilience in semiconductor supply chains

Overall, semiconductor supply returned to normalcy in FY24, primarily on account of the reduction in demand-supply gap globally. Semiconductor (including wafer fab) manufacturing and supplies are closely monitored and near- or medium-term supply disruptions are unlikely. Globally, there is focus on actions for supply chain resilience and single geography de-risking.

International business saw marginal growth and maintained market shares across geographies, such as SAARC, MENA, with healthy financials despite a subdued microeconomic environment.



Shifting fuel preferences in vehicle market

In FY24, decreasing price difference between CNG and diesel resulted in decrease in CNG salience. Correspondingly, the salience of CNG vehicles declined y-o-y in Q4 for SCV and pick-ups, driven by increased acceptance for petrol and EV versions. CNG salience for ILMCV decreased y-o-y in Q4 FY24 as customers preferred diesel vehicles amidst a stable fuel price environment. Fuel prices remained stable in H2 FY24 and are expected to continue to be at the same levels in Q1 FY25.

As part of our sustainability commitment, we are actively working towards achieving net zero emissions by 2045. In the CV segment, including pickups, we are focusing on developing and deploying alternative fuel vehicles such as electric and hydrogen-powered vehicles. Additionally, we are investing in R&D to enhance the efficiency of Internal Combustion Engines (ICEs) and are exploring innovative solutions to reduce emissions throughout the vehicle lifecycle. By transitioning to cleaner fuels and adopting sustainable practices, we aim to minimise our environmental impact and contribute to a greener future.

As a global automotive Company, Tata Motors faces a range of market challenges such as fluctuating demand, regulatory changes, supply chain disruptions, technological shifts, and competition. Our response to these challenges involve product innovation, cost optimisation, enhancing operational efficiency, expanding market presence, and investing in new technologies.

Strategic and performance review

Progress towards sustainability

We intend to further strengthen our position in the Indian automobile industry by investing in new sustainable technologies, products and mobility solutions that exceed customer expectations, improve customer experiences across all our touchpoints, offer superior value propositions with best-in-class total cost of ownership. While we continue to work towards optimising our manufacturing and distribution strategy, Tata Motors' CV business has proactively taken steps as a responsible corporate and industry leader, embarking on a sustainability journey.

Leading by example, we have committed to achieving net zero emissions by 2045. To achieve this goal, we have adopted the Science Based Targets (SBTi) framework for reducing greenhouse gas emissions. We are also swiftly progressing towards renewable electricity (RE) sources, aiming to meet 100% of our electricity needs from renewables. In FY24, we have achieved significant milestones.

The journey towards net zero

- With a total installed RE capacity of 78 MW across manufacturing locations in India, we plan to add approximately 300 MW over the next three years, paving the way to become a RE100 Company
- Reduced Scope 1+2 emissions intensity by 44% in last 3 years
- Launched multiple new models in the CV business, including CNG and LNG ranges in heavy commercial vehicles, CNG-Bi-Fuel range in small CVs, and introduced six new E-buses, demonstrating leadership in our net zero transition agenda

Circular economy

- The introduction of TATVA 1.0, the Tata Motors Circular Economy Framework, highlights our commitment to become a pioneer in circular economy
- Establishing five Re.Wi.Re facilities across key locations ensures critical infrastructure for unlocking value at the end of the vehicles' lifecycle
- Notably, our Dharwad plant attained a water-positive status, joining our Lucknow plant and Pantnagar plant in this commendable achievement

Nature and biodiversity

- Completing a comprehensive biodiversity baseline assessment across our operations demonstrating our dedication to preserving nature
- Our nature and biodiversity strategy underscores our commitment, encompassing operations, value chain initiatives, and investments in flagship projects beyond the value chain

Investment in R&D

We are investing in R&D to enhance the efficiency of ICEs and exploring innovative solutions to reduce emissions throughout the vehicle lifecycle. By transitioning to cleaner fuels and adopting sustainable practices, Tata Motors aims to minimise its environmental impact and contribute to a greener future.

Disclosures

Our continued membership in the DJSI Emerging Markets Index for consecutive years highlights our enduring commitment to sustainable practices and responsible corporate citizenship.

Other key strategic focus areas

Product and technology

Tata Motors' CV business smoothly transitioned to BS VI Phase II, upgrading the entire vehicle portfolio beyond emission compliance while offering enhanced attributes, value additions and benefits to customers. With BS VI Phase II, we pioneered India's first modular Firmware Over-the-Air (FOTA)-enabled flashing, ensuring a streamlined update process with a single source of truth across product portfolio. Key customer-centric attributes were meticulously optimised and a range of value enhancers were introduced. This was aimed at bolstering the brand's popularity while delivering lower total cost of ownership, efficient powertrains with high power and torque, enhanced driver comfort, and improved durability and reliability.

CV accidents often involve high-impact energies due to their size and weight. Tata Motors prioritises a comprehensive safety strategy, focusing on active safety technologies like robust brakes, anti-lock braking systems, and advanced driver assist systems (ADAS). We have launched India's first Prima Truck fitted with Collision Mitigation System, Lane Departure Warning System, Electronic Stability Control and Driver Motoring System (to address driver fatigue, drowsiness and distraction), offering unmatched real-world safety in heavy commercial vehicle segment in India far beyond regulatory requirements.

Connectivity, electrification, ADAS, and autonomous driving technologies are reaching new heights, and aiming to deliver top-tier safety in products for both Indian and global markets. Tata Motors today stands resolutely committed to manufacturing safe vehicles tailored for the Indian market, thus ensuring safety as a universal privilege.

We have also taken the lead in the electric mobility space, with 2,000+ e-buses now plying on Indian roads. We are the first in the industry to receive India's first auto PLI certificate in the four-wheeled goods vehicle category (N1 - Tata Ace EV Models) from ARAI, on October 30, 2023. We also received the first Auto PLI certificate from ARAI on December 26, 2023, for the 12m fully built bus in the M3 category. Demonstrating a commitment to eco-friendly solutions, Tata Motors introduced Hydrogen Fuel-Cell-powered buses — a first of its kind — to Indian Oil Corporation Ltd. These buses, inaugurated in New Delhi on September 25, 2023, represent a significant step towards advancing India's transportation sector.

Taking India ahead on the global map, we have embarked on our electrification journey, launching Tata Ace EV in Nepal, commencing our electrification endeavours abroad.

Additionally, we have unveiled two state-of-the-art R&D facilities aimed at promoting sustainable mobility solutions, including an engine test cell for developing Hydrogen ICEs and infrastructure for storing and dispensing hydrogen fuel for Fuel Cell and H2ICE vehicles.

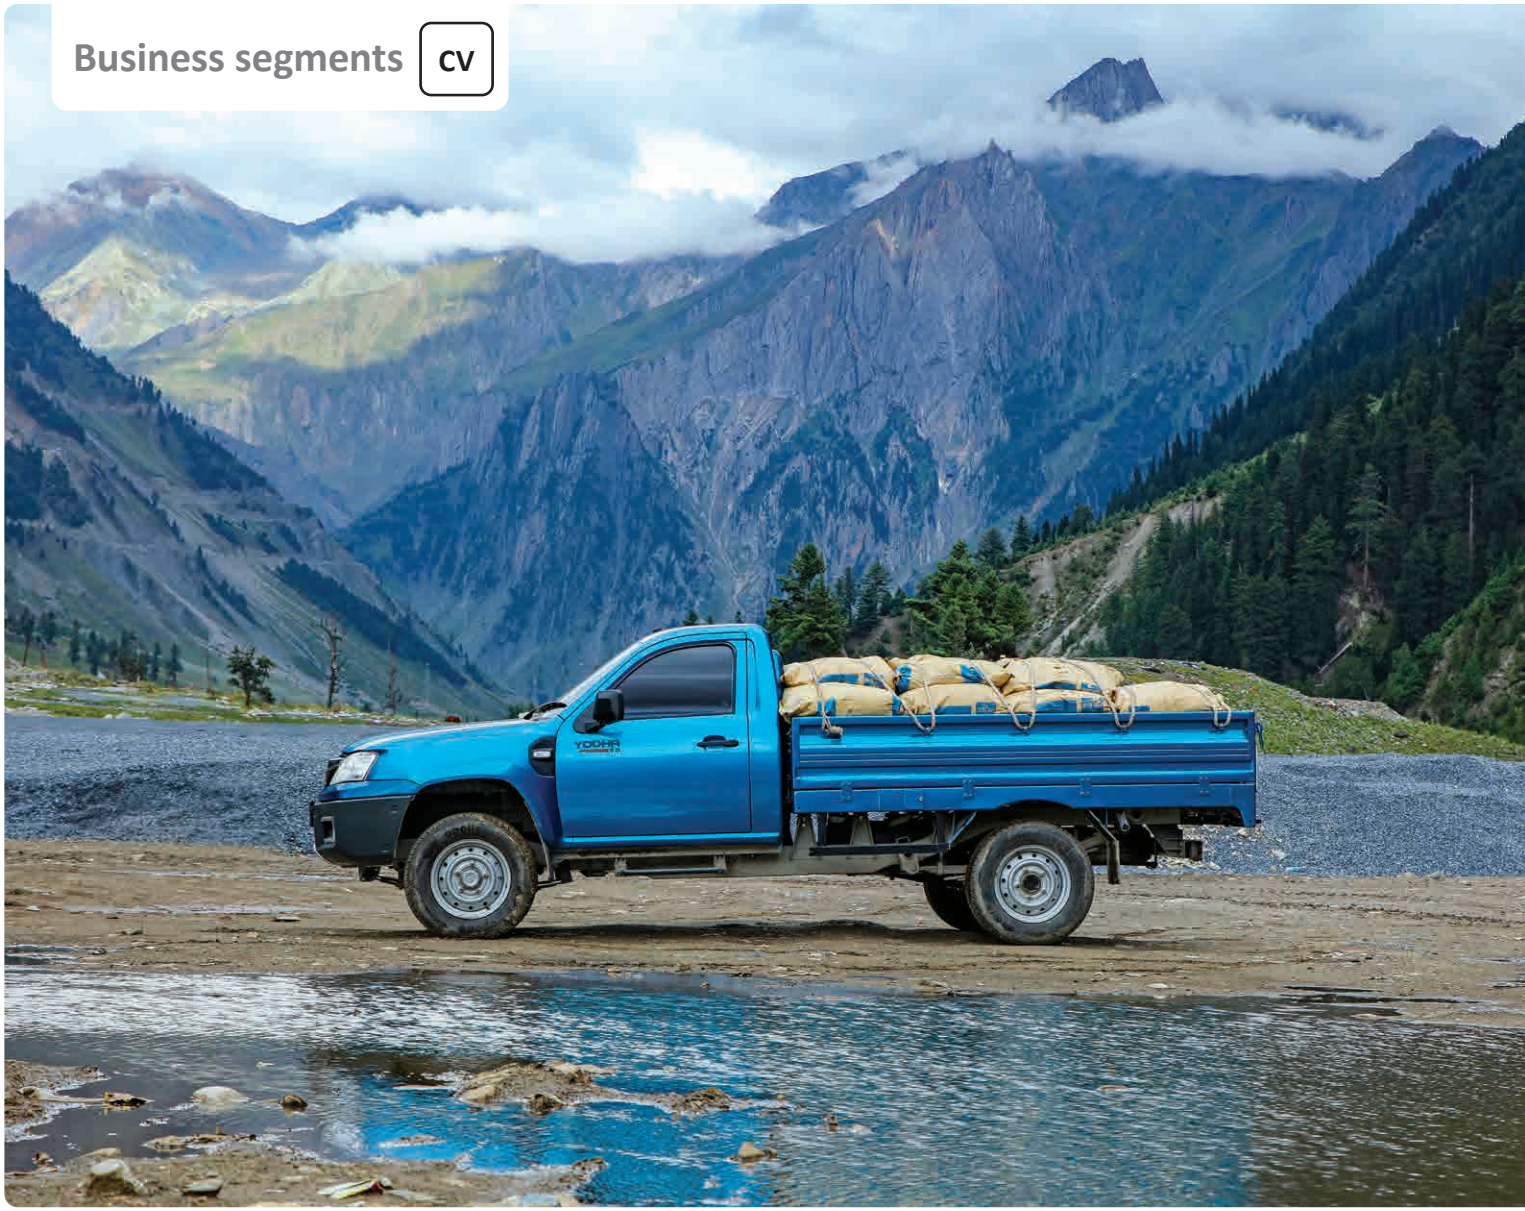
These advancements represent Tata Motors' ongoing efforts towards carbon neutrality while harnessing the potential of hydrogen as a clean energy source, thereby contributing to the government's sustainability goals.

We also showcased a diverse range of current and future-ready vehicles and solutions at the Bharat Mobility Global Expo 2024 in New Delhi, aiming to revolutionise personal mobility, public transportation, and cargo transport.

Downstream opportunities

TML SCMSL

We successfully deployed 1,100+ E-buses across four cities, including operations in sub-zero climate conditions. With 2,000+ e-buses on the road, 14 crore cumulative kilometres covered, and 95% availability, we continue to make commuting safer, comfortable and convenient for millions of passengers every day. We are actively pursuing key structural interventions from the government, such as payment security mechanism and leasing arrangement, which we will leverage by participating in future E-bus tenders, while we continue to generate demand from the retail segment.



Digitalisation

The thrust on digitalisation gained pace on both the front-end and across operations.

Fleet Edge

Our connected vehicle platform is being used in 6 lakh+ trucks, allowing us the unique capability to offer curated data and AI-enabled services, such as 'Mileage Sarathi', and help customers drive better efficiencies. We gave digital a concerted focus during the fiscal and acquired 26.79% stake in 'Freight Tiger', a platform that provides end-to-end logistics value chain solutions for cargo movement in India. This will add to other initiatives aiming to make India's truck and freight ecosystem more efficient.

E-Dukaan

E-Dukaan grew its revenue 3.8x in FY24, expanding its offerings to include DEF and lubricants.

Digital marketing

We achieved highest-ever digital sales in Q4 FY24.

- Overall digital sales surged in FY24 compared to FY23
- Consistently exceeded digital contribution from January to March 2024
- Grew Net Promoter Score (NPS) to highest-ever level

Tata Motors leads in pioneering technological advancements

Recognising road safety as a national concern, Tata Motors, under Mr. Girish Wagh's leadership, is actively promoting training and road safety initiatives, with a focus on instilling a responsible driving attitude and understanding of traffic regulations. We have established seven world-class Institute for Driving & Traffic Research (IDTR) centres, with more to come, providing top-notch training facilities. Over 6,00,000 individuals have received training through these centres.

Additionally, we launched the 'Samarth Programme' to support the well-being of CV drivers, covering areas like wellness, finance, education, and life insurance. This initiative aims to strengthen relationships with customers and drivers, ensuring their health and overall quality of life. The programme provides financial cover, health insurance, and educational support, among other benefits, demonstrating Tata Motors' commitment to driver welfare and safety.

Managing Director,
Tata Motors Passenger Vehicles Limited &
Tata Passenger Electric Mobility Limited

Dear Shareholders,

I hope this letter finds you safe and in good health.

FY24 was a landmark year for the passenger vehicles (PV) industry in India with vehicle sales crossing the coveted 4 million milestone for the first time. With highest-ever sales of 4.2 million vehicles, the PV industry recorded a growth of 8.6% over FY23. This growth can be attributed almost entirely to the rising demand for greener powertrains as sales of CNG vehicles and EVs grew 55% and 70% over FY23, respectively. The introduction of several new nameplates during FY24 also contributed to the industry growth. The shift in customer preference for SUVs gained prominence with over 50% sales coming from this segment.

It was an excellent year for Tata Motors too as FY24 became the third successive year of highest-ever sales volumes of cars and SUVs, with wholesales of 5,73,541 units (up 6% over FY23) and retail sales growing 8.4% over FY23 (VAHAN-based). We improved our market share and consolidated our position as a strong #3 .player in the automobile industry.

The business also recorded its highest-ever turnover with an annual revenue of ₹52,353 crore, growing by 9.4% over FY23. It also became more profitable, delivering highest ever EBITDA and a healthy improvement in EBIT margins by 100 bps.

Winning product strategy

Key initiatives undertaken during the fiscal included strengthening the product portfolio holistically. The launch of new avatars of Nexon, Nexon.ev, Harrier and Safari received much acclaim from both customers and channel partners.

A customer-centric strategy with smart product enhancements enabled us to achieve #1 or #2 position in almost every addressable vehicle segment that we cater to. The maiden Bharat NCAP safety certification of 5-star awarded to the Harrier and Safari, soon after they registered the highest safety scores received by any car in India from GNCAP, further affirmed our commitment to improving driver and passenger safety.

Our multi-powertrain approach and sharp focus on green technologies increased the penetration of CNG and EVs to 29% of the overall portfolio. The introduction of the twin-cylinder CNG range of vehicles, an industry first, addressed a major concern of CNG customers by ensuring no compromise of boot space. This innovative technology was offered in all our compact vehicles – Altroz, Tiago, Tigor and Punch, resulting in our annual CNG sales volume growing 120% over FY23.

Elevating the EV experience

We continued to lead the way in EVs, with 70%+ market share. With 1,50,000 cumulative EV production, a milestone achieved by few car manufacturers globally, we sold 73,844 EVs during the year to register a growth of 48% over FY23. To create distinction, we introduced a new customer-facing brand identity built on the pillars of sustainability, community, and technology exclusively for EVs –Tata.ev and inaugurated EV only stores to provide the differentiated experience that EV customers expect.

2 out of 5 highest-selling models in India were Tata Cars

A customer centric strategy with smart product enhancements enabled us to achieve #1 or #2 position in almost every addressable vehicle segment that we cater to.

3rd consecutive year of highest-ever volumes with 5,73,541 units

An expansive and robust charging infrastructure is essential to develop the EV market. Making this a priority, we initiated open collaborations with charging ecosystem providers and partnered with several charge point operators as well as oil marketing companies to optimise their plans of installing more than 22,000 public chargers over the next 12-18 months.

Excellence throughout the value chain

Our thrust on reimagining all front-end initiatives to enhance customer experience across all touchpoints gained momentum with increased digitalisation. Our brand standing was further improved as evidenced in improvement in the NPS score to 48, further cementing our position as the #2 brand in India. Keeping pace with rising vehicle sales, we expanded our network of sales and service touchpoints to 1,456 and 1,000 respectively, making it easier for customers to engage with us.

Due investments were made in expanding capacity and building organisational capability in line with our growth aspirations. Partnerships with vendors and channel partners were strengthened and focused talent training programmes conducted across levels and functions. The new manufacturing facility acquired at Sanand was made operational within just a year of taking over. It creates additional production capacity, which can be expanded to 4,20,000 units, and provisions a cumulative annual manufacturing footprint of 1 million cars and SUVs.

Progressing on our sustainability commitments

During the year, we accelerated our efforts towards fulfilling our sustainability target of attaining net zero emissions by 2040. We made good progress towards reducing our Scope 1, Scope 2 and Scope 3 emissions as per SBTi glidepath. Operations at plants were made greener with the increase in utilisation of energy generated from renewable sources and implementation of a more sustainable waste disposal system.

Going forward

I expect the Indian PV industry to moderate towards a long-term secular growth rate after three consecutive years of strong growth. Trends seen in FY24 are expected to accentuate with rising customer preference for safer, smarter and greener vehicles powered by CNG and batteries. SUVs will continue to dominate the landscape with more options for customers to choose from. At Tata Motors, with new nameplates and launches planned, we will continue our growth trajectory and expect to deliver strong growth. We will continue to shape the EV landscape with holistic initiatives to expand the market, build preference and increase EV penetration.

With its endowments and investments, the PV and EV businesses are perfectly poised to capitalise on the exciting future and scale new peaks. I thank you all for your continued interest, commitment and support to Tata Motors.

Warm regards,

Shailesh Chandra

External environment

High growth rates for emission-friendly powertrains

In FY24, there was increasing consideration in the personal segment for emission-friendly powertrains, viz. CNG vehicles and EVs, with 55% and 70% growth over FY23, respectively. The CNG vehicle segment has grown due to adoption beyond just the small car segment, due to significant innovations in the CNG segment and growing CGD network. The EV industry has also grown rapidly in FY24, with preference for EVs increasing due to growing EV options for customers and holistic ecosystem efforts.

Market continues to shift towards SUVs

The segment shift in the industry continued in FY24, as customer preference moved towards the SUV segment. The hatch and sedan segments have come under pressure as the SUV segment salience has crossed 50% for the first time. The surge in SUV volumes stems from the rising number of first-time buyers opting for SUVs. At the same time, the SUV space is becoming more competitive with the addition of more nameplates, as most of the new nameplates launched in FY24 were SUVs.

Record PV industry but moderation in demand

The PV industry achieved the highest-ever volumes in FY24 with 4.2 million units in sales. However, the industry growth rate in FY24 moderated to secular levels of 8.6% over FY23, reverting back to the growth rates seen in the pre-COVID period. This moderation is seen after two years of strong double digit growth, which was fuelled by the pent up demand during the COVID years. As such, with the easing of pent up demand, the channel inventory in the industry has reverted back to pre-COVID levels and the waiting period for customers has come down across models.

Strategic and performance review

Winning product strategy

- We reinforced multi-powertrain strategy in H1 with the introduction of the innovative industry-first twin cylinder range of CNG vehicles
- Twin-cylinder CNG cars ensured a no-compromise solution offering full boot space for our CNG range, which was increased to four models – Tiago, Tigor, Altroz and Punch iCNG
- We unveiled the Nexon iCNG in the Bharat Mobility Show in February 2024 with strong traction seen for the showcased car
- We introduced facelifts for the Nexon, Harrier and Safari in H2, in line with the shifting preference customers towards SUVs
- The facelifts offered segment-leading features with a digital design and best-in-class safety
- Each facelift has been rated 5-star as per the GNCAP rating reinforcing our brand pillar of safety
- Harrier and Safari in particular received the highest GNCAP safety scores among all vehicles on Indian roads

Front-end reimagination

- We consolidated our market position with a 40 bps increase in our market share, leveraging the multi-powertrain strategy with strong focus on new interventions launch in FY24
- Our CNG portfolio now contributes to 16% of our total sales with more than 91,000 units in FY24, which is 2.2x over FY23
- We drove one of the biggest cultural shifts in the industry by adopting a VAHAN-centric sales process
- Our entire sales funnel is now aligned to VAHAN, which represents the real sale of the vehicle to the final customer, instead of intermediate measures
- This has streamlined demand creation, strengthened sales planning and ensured leaner channel inventories
- This shift has allowed us to achieve 8.4% growth in our VAHAN volumes over FY23
- We have enhanced our sales and service network across the country with an addition of 191 new sales and service touchpoints combined and continued focus on improving customer experience at all the touchpoints
- We digitised the entire customer journey through our new website, which is one of the leading initiatives in the industry
- Tata Motors brand equity was improved on the back of brand premiumisation efforts throughout the year

Segment outlook

In FY25, we expect the PV industry demand to moderate as a result of high base effect, easing of pent-up demand and higher channel inventory at the beginning of the year. We expect strong growth for emission-friendly powertrains, such as CNG vehicles and EVs, with their growing adoption by customers. The shift in customer preference towards SUVs is also expected to continue.

We aim to deliver strong growth in FY25 as we aim to capitalise on new product launches, sustain an aggressive multi-powertrain strategy and drive actions to improve our profitability.

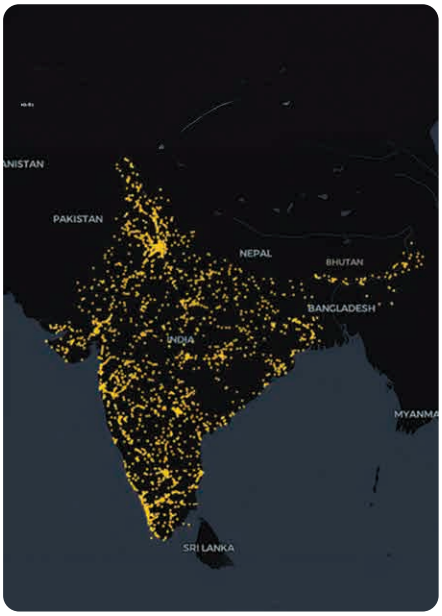
External environment

Growing consideration for EVs

The customer consideration for EVs in India is growing at a rapid rate. In FY24, the EV industry crossed 1 lakh units, representing a growth of 70% over FY23. Over the past few years, most of the barriers for purchase for customers have been addressed with increasing availability of EV models, widening charging network and wider awareness of EV technology. However, there are still some residual barriers which need to be address to drive widespread adoption for EVs.

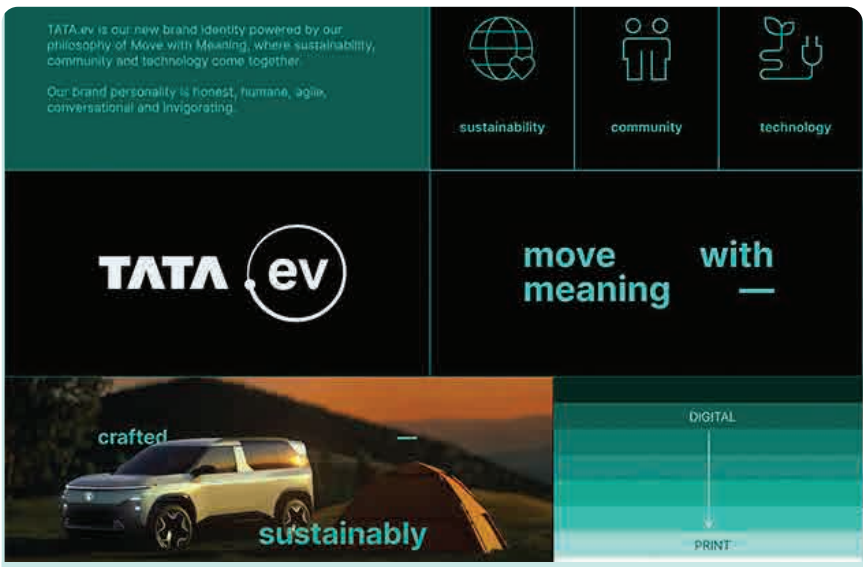
Widening charging network

The charging network across India is a key factor influencing adoption of EVs by customers. The charging network across the country has been increasing rapidly as we crossed 10,000 public chargers in FY24. Government support and open collaboration by Tata Motors has rejuvenated the expansion of charging infrastructure by Charge Point Operators and Oil Marketing Companies. However, the pace of charging network growth needs to be faster, in line with that of EVs. Faster infrastructure growth will be critical to drive mass adoption of EVs.



Regulatory support for the EV ecosystem

There has been strong regulatory support to drive adoption of emission friendly vehicles. In particular, the government has focused on providing support to electric vehicles, which are zero-emission vehicles. Over the past few years, there has been support from the government in the form of preferential GST rates, FAME incentives and state incentives, most of which persisted during FY24. The government has also supported the growth of the EV ecosystem by driving localisation with the PLI scheme and Phased Manufacturing Plan. Additionally, in FY24, the government outlined support to enhance the charging network.



New customer-facing brand identity – Tata.ev

Tata.ev will be the new customer-facing brand identity for Tata Passenger Electric Mobility, which embodies the core philosophy of 'Move with Meaning' unifying the values of sustainability, technology and community. It is our first step towards providing differentiated and meaningful experiences, curated specially for EV customers, and driving an electric future that is better for the planet and its inhabitants.

Strategic and performance review

Expansive product portfolio

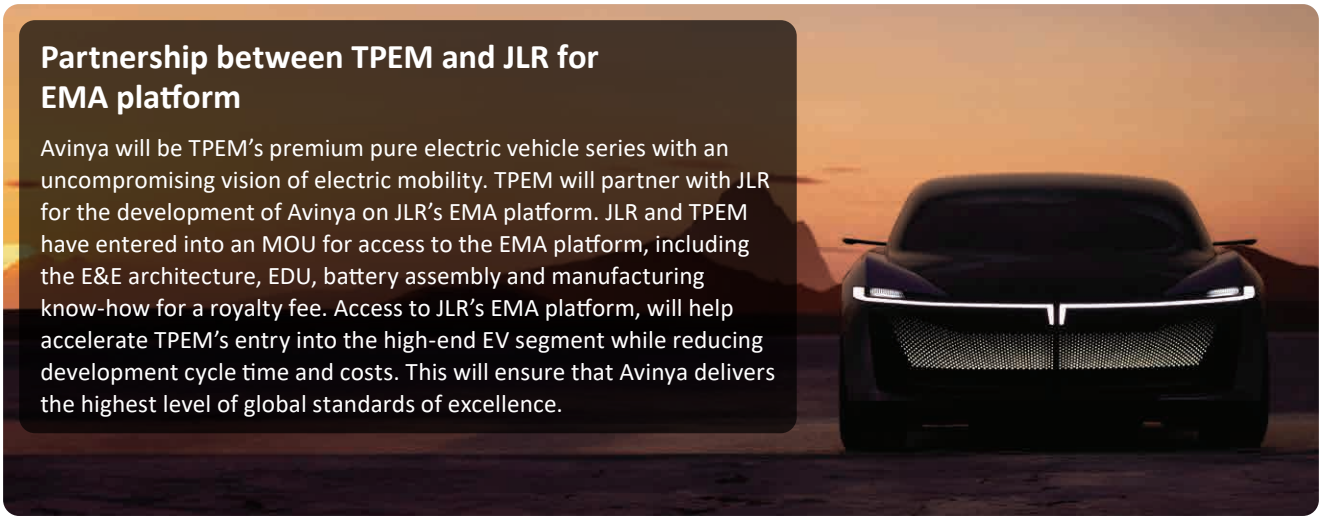
- We have the widest and most accessible EV portfolio in India, which was further accentuated by the launch of the Punch.ev in H2
- Punch.ev opened up a new price point for customers and was the first EV to be offered in a Sub-Compact SUV bodystyle
- Our portfolio now spans four unique bodystyles, all of which occupy different price ranges
- By offering such a wide range of products, we cater to diverse customer preferences and use cases
- We have already announced plans for the launches of Curvv, Harrier, Sierra, and Avinya in the coming years, all of which will further bolster our EV portfolio
- All of our future products will be built on the acti.ev Pure EV architecture. This allows us to offer enhanced range on our products, faster charging, better space utilisation, superior performance and more tech features in our vehicles

Customer-facing strategy

- We maintained our market leadership position in FY24 with 73%+ market share through key market expansion initiatives to drive growth in the Indian EV market
- We introduced a new customer-facing brand identity for EVs – Tata.ev. This brand identity will be more aligned with the values for EV customers
- In line with the brand identity, we also inaugurated the first EV-exclusive stores in Gurgaon, which would offer a differentiated customer journey that is curated for EV customers
- The EV-exclusive channel will provide a more technology-driven customer experience with a greater focus on community events
- In the coming year, we will look to introduce more EV-exclusive stores in key fast-growing markets with high volumes

Ecosystem enablement

- To drive growth in the charging network, we initiated an industry-first Charging Day, along with key charging ecosystem players
- This helped drive open collaboration which would result in more targeted charging network expansion and a smoother charging experience across all touchpoints for customers
- We have signed MoUs with four charge point operators and four oil marketing companies and will continue such partnerships sequentially to formalise open collaboration



Partnership between TPEM and JLR for EMA platform

Avinya will be TPEM's premium pure electric vehicle series with an uncompromising vision of electric mobility. TPEM will partner with JLR for the development of Avinya on JLR's EMA platform. JLR and TPEM have entered into an MOU for access to the EMA platform, including the E&E architecture, EDU, battery assembly and manufacturing know-how for a royalty fee. Access to JLR's EMA platform, will help accelerate TPEM's entry into the high-end EV segment while reducing development cycle time and costs. This will ensure that Avinya delivers the highest level of global standards of excellence.

First advanced Pure EV architecture – acti.ev

In January 2024, we introduced the first Made in India advanced pure-EV architecture – acti.ev. This is a modular and scalable architecture that enables multiple new products and underpins future products from the Tata.ev portfolio. acti.ev is a grounds-up platform developed to be ready for global standards, offering disruptive attributes in an optimised manner without the constraints arising from conversion of ICE platforms. This revolutionary platform will enable higher range, class leading space efficiencies, and superior driving performance.

Segment outlook

We expect the EV industry to grow rapidly, as we continue to see an upward trend in customer demand for EVs. In FY25, we expect a substantial number of new EV launches, which will drive growth for the industry. Furthermore, we expect the EV ecosystem to grow comprehensively, supporting the growth in demand.

Our seven modern luxury principles

Our world of modern luxury is built on seven clear principles.

01 Curation: Curation means being selective in what we say, do and show as a brand.

02 Future-Facing: What matters is what comes next, not what came before.

03 Effortless: Every interaction must be rewarding, seamless and effortless.

04 Engaging: Modern luxury is completely different from generic automotive behaviour. It is far more compelling and engaging.

05 Reductive: We never over-elaborate, over-desire or over-engineer.

06 Global Citizenship: Sustainability and being connected to the world.

07 Unique: We are original and selective, not universal.

Chief Executive Officer
Jaguar Land Rover Automotive PLC

Dear Shareholders,

Looking back, the last year was a crucially important stake in the ground as we firmly re-established our financial stability and laid the foundations for the next chapter of our Reimagine strategy.

We knew we had to build on the hard-won momentum that our return to profit in the second half of FY23 brought, and we did just that by delivering a strong first half of FY24.

In fact, we broke a series of records for the Company starting with the highest ever quarter one free cash flow, then the highest-ever first half of a financial year free cash flow, and then in quarter three we saw our highest profit ever and record Range Rover brand wholesales.

Quarter four was another record-breaking period, as we broke revenue records for the quarter and full year, and delivered record sales for Range Rover and Defender.

This was truly an incredible achievement, not least because for the last three years our business had been constrained by the extraordinary global pressures of semiconductor shortages, inflation, an energy crisis and other geopolitical instability, all of which took significant amounts of time and resource to resolve.

As operational performance improved, we were able to make progress towards our Reimagine financial goals. By increasing free cashflow, we reduced our debt and made huge strides towards the target of reaching net debt zero by the end of FY25. In addition, such was our confidence in our quarter two performance, we revised upwards our profitability expectations for the full year from 6% to 8%.

That we came through the challenging period, stabilised the business, and then went on to deliver a strong set of results throughout the rest of the year is testament to the skill, passion and dedication of our brilliant people. Thanks to our exceptional colleagues, JLR is now taking off.

Beyond the financial results, in April 2023, we announced that we would be investing £15 billion over the next five years to transform our business and electrify our brands by 2030, launching an all-electric Range Rover and reimagining Jaguar as an all-electric luxury brand.

We began reconfiguring our production facilities for electrification, including making Halewood in Merseyside our first ever all-electric production facility, and upskilling our diverse workforces.

Then, following the announcement in April of our new House of Brands organisation, we revealed the new JLR corporate identity. The House of Brands approach aspires to remove ambiguity and bring to the fore the unique DNA of each of JLR's brands – Range Rover; Defender; Discovery and Jaguar – as well as accelerate the delivery of the Company's vision to be proud creators of modern luxury.

During the year, we refreshed our existing collections with Model Year updates, including the arrival of the most powerful and dynamic Range Rover Sport ever, the superlative Range Rover Sport SV Edition One. Invite-only orders for this vehicle were fully reserved ahead of its launch in May, demonstrating its enormous desirability.

This financial year, we stabilised our business and delivered a strong set of results, which is testament to our exceptional people

Our vehicles extended their track record of award-winning acclaim. The Range Rover Sport was named the Auto Express 'Large Premium SUV of the Year 2023,' while Jaguar and Land Rover (Range Rover, Defender, Discovery) brands placed top of J.D. Power US 'Automotive Performance, Execution and Layout (APEAL)' study based on client perceptions of design, performance, safety, comfort and quality.

In July came the much-anticipated announcement that Tata Sons had chosen the UK as the location to build a new gigafactory, run by Agratas and JLR would be its anchor customer. This was a huge moment for us, guaranteeing a secure battery supply for our next generation electric vehicles, near to our manufacturing base. It was also a significant moment for the UK car industry which requires a supply of domestically-produced batteries to remain competitive in a future EV-dominated world.

Against a broader backdrop of electrification, our much loved and admired Jaguar F-TYPE V8 sportscar was celebrated in its final 24MY guise, with two new 75 edition models, heralding 75 years of Jaguar sports cars. And while the evocative roar of the F-TYPE's supercharged V8 engine will eventually be gone, it will not be forgotten as we took the step of archiving the sound in the British Library for future generations to hear, in an age where all cars will be electric.

Coventry is of course the birthplace of Jaguar, and it is also home to our powertrain engineering centre in Whitley, which for many years has developed internal combustion powertrains. This was to be the year that we signalled Whitley's electric future as we unveiled its all-new Future Energy Lab, a £250 million electric propulsion test and development facility, where our passionate engineers are designing and testing the Electric Drive Units (EDUs) for our next-generation electric vehicles.

As well as Jaguar, this year we celebrated two more anniversaries as we were joined by Her Royal Highness the Princess Royal to commemorate the 60th anniversary of vehicle manufacturing at our historic Halewood facility in Merseyside, UK. We also toasted the fifth anniversary of our state-of-the-art production facility in Nitra, Slovakia, home to Defender and Discovery, and confirmed its future producing EVs.

Through FY24, we have taken further steps to strengthen our supply chain and expand its resilience in an increasingly volatile world.

We introduced a risk scanning solution to identify risk throughout the whole supply chain at the earliest opportunity; we announced a partnership with Tata Technologies to deliver Enterprise Resource Planning (ERP) that will transform JLR's manufacturing, logistics, supply chain, finance and purchasing by bringing data from multiple departments into one source; and we are working with NVIDIA at our Innovation Hub in NAIC, Warwick, to develop a digital twin of our supply chain allowing us to make changes in a risk free environment.

People are the heart and soul of JLR and as we deliver on our Reimagine strategy, it is vital our colleagues are equipped with the skills necessary to keep pace with the technological change. This year, as part of our Future Skills Programme, we delivered the largest data upskilling apprenticeship programme in the UK, to make better decisions, innovate faster, and deliver for our clients. We also trained a further 2,000 engineers in electrification.

Skills are only a part of the development and enrichment of our people. We are committed to realising a culture representative of society by instilling values of unity and belonging, inclusion and respect at JLR. This year, we hosted our first ever Diversity, Equity and Inclusion (DE&I) Summit, welcoming participants in person, and online across 26 countries with 17 global inclusion hubs to celebrate the uniqueness of each soul at JLR. We celebrated events such as Black History Month, Diwali, and PRIDE, and my leadership team have now received modern leadership training. Having had the privilege of being reverse-mentored by members of our DE&I employee-led networks, I know that our work to become a more diverse business supports our strong performance.

I am also delighted to have appointed Richard Molyneux to my executive team as our permanent CFO, following a brief period where he served as interim CFO. Richard has already shown himself to be a great talent in his new role and is a perfect fit to the JLR Limited board. Meanwhile, I am honoured to have formally been appointed to the role of CEO. I have held a range of roles in this business, and fully appreciate our industrial and innovation role in the UK and beyond; our role as proud employers of global talent; and our role in curating our iconic brands.

We have emerged stronger from the recent crises and are delivering our strategy at pace, with new leadership, more robust supply chains, increasing production, and improving financial performance. I am confident that with the desirability of our products, the skill and dedication of our people and the exciting portfolio of electric models on the horizon, this business will continue to vigorously address the challenges encountered in 2024, and successfully reimagine our bright future in the year ahead and beyond.

Warm regards,

Adrian Mardell

External environment

Challenges

Supply constraints and order book

In FY24, the ongoing supply chain challenges initially continued to limit our ability to build cars in line with client demand, but these challenges eased as the year progressed. In conjunction with this easing, and to be more responsive in the future, we have been working towards our vision of having a state-of-the-art industrial operation. We anticipate that the actions we have taken this year will continue to minimise the impacts on our volumes and allows us to be more resilient.

The order book continues to reduce as expected, as increased production has allowed more client orders to be fulfilled. Range Rover and Defender have proved to have strong demand with minimal levels of variable marketing expense, however, there is an increased focus on stimulating demand to maintain the order book at natural levels.

Inflation

We are still seeing inflationary pressures in labour and logistics, particularly with the completion of the two-year deal negotiation with the trade unions, but chip and material costs, including commodity prices, are moderating. Interest rates exposure is being offset through our investment policy, allowing us to benefit from the high interest rate environment. In semiconductor inflation, we have seen some price increases. However, our supply needs have been satisfied following the development and maintaining of strong partnerships with suppliers.

Theft and Insurance

One of the most pressing challenges during FY24 was vehicle thefts and the related insurance issues in the UK. Vehicles manufactured from 2022 onwards are built on our most advanced electrical architecture, meaning they have the latest security features and are proving highly resilient to theft. Vehicles built after 2018 have benefitted from over £15 million of investment, including a series of enhanced security updates rolled out to 1,50,000 vehicles so far to help tackle keyless thefts.

This security technology which is being deployed to previous generation vehicles, will ensure they are updated with the same levels of protection as current models. We also launched three new JLR Insurance products to support UK clients, as part of JLR financial services offering.

Geopolitical

Geopolitical challenges, including ongoing and increasing geopolitical tensions, have global reach and impact supply chains. The Red Sea shipping issues have resulted in ships being re-routed, impacting transport timings for materials and vehicles. We continue to monitor the supply of parts and delivery of vehicles and scenario plan against a range of outcomes.

Opportunities

Tata Ecosystem

Our partnerships with Tata Group companies are key, and, in FY24, we have leveraged the many opportunities that exist within the Tata ecosystem.

Agratas, a subsidiary of Tata Sons, plans to invest £4 billion to build a battery cell gigafactory in the UK. Our partnership with Agratas is expected to create significant efficiencies in logistics and manufacturing for our business.

We have also collaborated with Tata Technologies to accelerate the digital transformation of our industrial strategy. The partnership will allow us to transform our core Enterprise Resource Planning infrastructure to deliver the efficiency and usability we require for the future and our transformation objectives.

We have extended our partnership with Tata Consultancy Services (TCS), where they will support the rapid transformation and simplification of our digital infrastructure and IT estate, supporting the transformation of our business' transformation.

We have announced the strategic collaboration with Tata Passenger Electric Mobility (TPEML) on the EMA platform, which underpins our next generation of all-electric medium-sized SUV's. The collaboration will also enable sharing of other engineering and sustainability innovation to maximise benefits from technology investment across the Tata business.

We will continue to leverage synergies within the Tata ecosystem.

Execution of 'Reimagine' and transition to electrification

Our commitment to Reimagine and our journey to modern luxury continues to progress. We have reimagined Jaguar making it a dedicated brand for our future, delivering the most exuberant and exceptional EVs; a copy of nothing.

The Range Rover Electric waiting list is now open with over 26,000 clients already signed up as at

March 31, 2024. Its exemplary British design remains distinctive and unwavering, while its go-anywhere capability will ensure towing, wading and all-terrain technology surpass any other luxury electric SUV. We are investing £70 million in an underbody facility at Solihull, UK, to help deliver this new era for Range Rover.

As part of our £15 billion investment in electrification, we have announced our plant in Nitra, Slovakia will be reconfigured for electrification. Nitra will be producing EVs by the end of the decade – another milestone in our Reimagine strategy.

Our shift to electrification is central to transforming our business and to achieve carbon net zero by 2039. We continue to position ourselves to be an electric-first modern luxury car manufacturer by 2030.

Artificial Intelligence (AI)

We have harnessed the power of AI to protect and strengthen our supply chain. This has digitised the supply chain, moving from a reactive approach to a predictive approach and provides end-to-end transparency, allowing us to manage risks before they cause disruption.

Our multi-year strategic partnership with NVIDIA, the leader in AI and computing, will see us develop and deliver next-generation automated driving systems, services, and experiences for clients. Starting in 2025, all our new vehicles will be built on the NVIDIA DRIVE™ software-defined platform, delivering a wide spectrum of active safety, automated driving and parking systems as well as driver assistance systems such as advanced visualisation of the vehicle's environment. The capability to use AI and the acceleration of computing data allow us to constantly deploy features to customers and update and upgrade platforms more rapidly. This is a peerless symbol of modern luxury.

The 'Reimagine' strategy

'Reimagine' is our roadmap, our strategy for transforming JLR into a sustainable, modern luxury business.

With sustainability at the heart of everything we do, we aim to achieve our goal of being carbon net zero by 2039, with the delivery of our 2030 Science Based Targets initiative (SBTi) carbon reduction targets as a significant milestone. Through Reimagine, we aim to deliver double-digit EBIT margins by 2026 and be net cash positive by FY25.

As part of our strategy, we have created a house of four distinct brands: Range Rover, Defender, Discovery, and Jaguar; each with its own DNA and unique interpretation of modern luxury, and our modernist design philosophy.

Under this structure, we elevate the unique characteristics and status of each individual British marque, creating an emotional connection with our clients, from leading by example with Range Rover, to embracing the impossible with Defender, and enjoying family adventures with Discovery.

We are also radically reimagining our Jaguar brand, with an exuberant, modernist and forward-thinking character that promises to be a copy of nothing when it is revealed.

In our existing brands, we opened the waiting list for our first pure electric car conceived under the Reimagine strategy – Range Rover Electric – and introduced a new performance champion in the Range Rover Sport SV Edition One, as well as refreshing our Range Rover Velar, Evoque, Defender and Discovery Sport.

The electric future of all our brands is fundamental in our journey to carbon net zero, but it must be delivered at the pace at which different markets electrify around the world. The Modular Longitudinal Architecture (MLA) that underpins Range Rover

Electric also enables Internal Combustion Engine (ICE), mild, and plug-in hybrid powertrains, providing flexibility for our clients, by market, and the rapid electrification of our product portfolio.

Elsewhere, our new Electrified Modular Architecture (EMA) and Jaguar Electrified Architecture (JEA) will be introduced from 2025, as we move to an electric-first business, with all our brands offering pure electric options by 2030.

Reimagine is also about transforming our facilities to deliver this all-electric future. This starts with reconfiguring Solihull to produce pure electric MLA models and later, electric Jaguars; followed by converting Halewood in Merseyside, UK, to be our first all-electric manufacturing facility. In Wolverhampton, our Electric Propulsion Manufacturing Centre will be producing electric drive units (EDUs) and battery packs for all our brands, and our plant in Nitra, Slovakia will be updated to produce electric vehicles by 2030. Our new £250 million Future Energy Lab in Coventry, UK, will enable greater development ownership and oversight of critical components in our electric vehicle supply chain.

Beyond our vehicles, Reimagine will generate new benchmarks in environmental, societal and community impact for a luxury business. We have committed to ambitious Science Based Targets, aimed at reducing our GHG emissions by 2030 compared to our FY20 baseline, and are working collaboratively with industry-leading partners and suppliers, to help reduce emissions by 46% in our own operations and by 54% per vehicle across our entire value chain.

To do this, our sustainability strategy is divided into three parts: Planet Regenerate, Engage for Good and Responsible Business:

Planet Regenerate is focused on environmental impacts and includes our climate commitments, circular economy strategy and emerging plans on nature and biodiversity. We aim to achieve net zero carbon emissions across our supply chain, products, and operations by 2039 with all brands offering pure electric options by 2030.

Engage for Good builds on Tata Group's 150-year legacy of social responsibility and giving back to the community, through which more than 17.8 million lives have been positively impacted through community initiatives in FY23.

Responsible Business pillar includes our commitments, targets and performance. Our reported greenhouse gas emissions data has independent assurance, and the corporate governance and ratings firm, Sustainalytics, has given JLR a 'Low Risk' ESG Risk Rating ranking JLR third out of 78 companies in the Automotive-Sub-Industry.

A key element of Reimagine is about partnerships with leaders in their field.

We are partnering with NVIDIA, a pioneer in AI and accelerated computing, to give our clients the modern luxury driving experience they expect. We have benefitted from the strength of the wider Tata Group, partnering with Tata Consultancy Services to accelerate our digital transformation through cloud migration, cybersecurity and data services. In addition, Tata Technologies are also implementing cloud-based Enterprise Resource Planning (ERP) software solutions to revolutionise operations for employees and suppliers.

Central to Reimagine is our partnership with Agratas, whose new UK gigafactory in Somerset will commence production in 2026, and of which we will be the anchor customer.

We also signed an MoU with Tata Passenger Electric Mobility (TPEM), for the licensing of JLR's Electrified Modular Architecture (EMA) platform for the development of TPEM's 'premium pure electric vehicle' series.

Through our Open Innovation programme, we are working with global start-ups and scale-ups, to bring new thinking and new opportunities, including a collaboration with renewable energy specialists Wykes Engineering Ltd, to develop one of the largest energy storage systems in the UK using second-life Jaguar I-PACE batteries. This is an important step in our carbon net zero strategy and allows us to explore commercial opportunities in the circular economy.

With Reimagine as our roadmap, we continue to transform our global business today for a sustainable, modern luxury future.

Segment outlook

Customer love will be at the heart of what we do. We will continue the focus on brand activation to maintain order book and focus on delivery of product cycle plan. We expect premium luxury segment demand to be resilient despite emerging concerns on overall demand. We expect EBIT margins in FY25 to be around the FY24 level. We anticipate a modest increase in investment spend to £3.5 billion but still expect to become net debt zero during FY25.

Strategic overview

We are focusing on improving Return on Assets (RoA) through the following strategies:

- Growing a diversified book without compromising on quality
- Implementing risk-based pricing and adjusting product mix to drive yield expansion
- Employing targeted collection strategies to reduce credit costs while controlling gross non-performing assets (GNPA)
- Tightly managing other operating costs while expanding reach

NIM expansion

We are working to expand our net interest margin (NIM) by enhancing the portfolio's overall yield. This includes improving the mix of products and customer segments, implementing better risk-based pricing with emphasis on increasing cross-sell business and fee income thereon by leveraging on existing network, combined with efficient borrowing mix and book assignment to result in improved net margins for the Company.

Controlling credit cost: Robust credit assessment mechanisms using market intelligence and data-driven decisioning systems have been implemented to evaluate the creditworthiness of borrowers. Concentrated efforts on collection using optimal channels and close monitoring of early delinquency have been implemented to better collection efficiency. This, coupled with necessary legal intervention and mindful settlements, have started lowering credit cost for our Company.

Cost control

We are implementing technology and digital initiatives to increase operational efficiency, improve customer experience, and gain better control over processes, aiming to reduce turnaround time (TAT) and boost overall productivity. Specific cost-reduction initiatives are also being implemented to control costs and increase profitability and returns.

Performance review

The year 2023-24 marked a significant turning point, with steps taken from the 4th quarter of previous year towards sourcing and growing quality book yielding the desired results. Prudent sourcing and focused collection efforts have led to improved portfolio quality. Healthy early delinquency and roll-forward rates delivered a sequential reduction in GNPA in all the quarters. With credit losses trending down and book diversification at play, our Company has begun to build back Assets Under Management (AUM) prudently.

Segment outlook

Growth for NBFCs is seen at 16% to 18% in the coming fiscal. Focus is on diversified growth driven by strong consumption-led demand in retail loans. Healthy early bucket delinquencies indicate stable asset quality across segments. NBFC balance sheets are adequately propped up with capital and asset provision coverage. Cost of funding, however, remains a concern with inflation persisting globally with many central banks holding back on cutting rates. The impact of recent regulatory measures in India on the pace of bank lending to NBFCs is also to be observed.

TATA TECHNOLOGIES

Tata Technologies is a global product engineering and digital services Company. Since 2019, it has consistently held the top position among India-based automotive ER&D service providers in Zinnov Zone. Notably, in FY24, the Company achieved its highest-ever revenue of ₹5,117 crore, marking a substantial 15.9% increase vis-à-vis FY23, along with an operating EBITDA of ₹941 crore. Over the past three years, revenue from operations has demonstrated a robust 29% CAGR, while operating EBITDA has shown an even stronger growth rate of 35% CAGR. This growth is attributed to significant demand across both services and technology solution sectors. As of March 31, 2024, Tata Technologies had a headcount of 12,688 talented professionals.

Making the safest vehicles for Indian roads

In 1997, at a time when there were no crash-testing benchmarks in India, Tata Motors set up a crash-testing facility in Pune, becoming the first Indian manufacturer to do so. Safety has been an intrinsic part of the Tata Motors DNA and has shaped our approach to vehicle engineering.

For many years, most of our offerings have come equipped with key safety features for both adult and child occupants, including airbags, seat-belt reminders, speed alert systems and much more. We continue to invest in R&D for safety technologies with advanced features like ADAS, driver-health monitoring systems, connected vehicle platforms and so on.

Commercial Vehicles

Commercial vehicle accidents often involve high-impact energies due to their size and weight. Tata Motors prioritises a comprehensive safety strategy, focusing on active safety technologies like robust brakes, anti-lock braking systems, and advanced driver assist systems (ADAS). Tata Motors has launched India's first Prima Truck fitted with Collision Mitigation System, Lane Departure Warning System, Electronic Stability Control and Driver Motoring System (to address driver fatigue, drowsiness and distraction), offering unmatched real-world safety in heavy commercial vehicle segment in India far beyond regulatory requirements. Connectivity, Electrification, ADAS, and Autonomous Driving technologies is reaching new depths, aimed at delivering top-tier safety in products for both Indian and global markets.

Passenger Vehicles

Our entire passenger vehicle range has been certified by Global NCAP ratings, with all our products holding a 5 star or 4 star GNCAP rating. The New Tata Harrier and Safari, which are built on the OMEGARC architecture, derived from the Land Rover's renowned D8 platform, have set the standard for safety for vehicles in India. With 5-star GNCAP rating and the highest GNCAP safety scores, the Tata Harrier and Safari are now the safest cars on Indian roads. With the introduction of India's own safety standard, BNCAP, Harrier and Safari were the first vehicles to achieve 5-star BNCAP rating.

JLR

Jaguar Land Rover has modern safety test facilities for testing and developing new products. These include a pedestrian safety testing facility, a pendulum impact test facility and a gravity-powered impact rig for occupant protection and vehicle structural development. Jaguar Land Rover also has two full vehicle semi-anechoic chambers to develop reductions in vehicle-based noise and vibration levels, alongside engine testing facilities for developing and certifying exhaust emissions to meet a wide range of international regulatory standards. New Range Rover and Range Rover Sport have achieved maximum 5-star Euro NCAP safety ratings.

Tata Motors today stands resolutely committed to crafting safe vehicles tailored for the Indian market, thus ensuring safety becomes a universal privilege, fostering the growth of a robust nation.

R&D and innovation

In FY24, for India business we were granted 333 patents and 145 design applications. Jaguar Land Rover was granted 337 patents and 279 design applications. Our cutting-edge R&D facilities consistently pioneer innovative mobility solutions, developing a range of alternative fuel technologies, from battery-electric to CNG, LNG, Hydrogen Fuel Cell and hydrogen-based ICE technologies.

CV

State-of-the-art H2 ICE engine facilities

Tata Motors unveiled two state-of-the-art R&D facilities to promote sustainable mobility solutions, including an engine test cell for developing Hydrogen Internal Combustion Engines and infrastructure for storing and dispensing hydrogen fuel for Fuel Cell and H2ICE vehicles. These advancements represent Tata Motors' ongoing efforts towards carbon neutrality while harnessing the potential of hydrogen as a clean energy source, thereby contributing towards Government's sustainability goals.

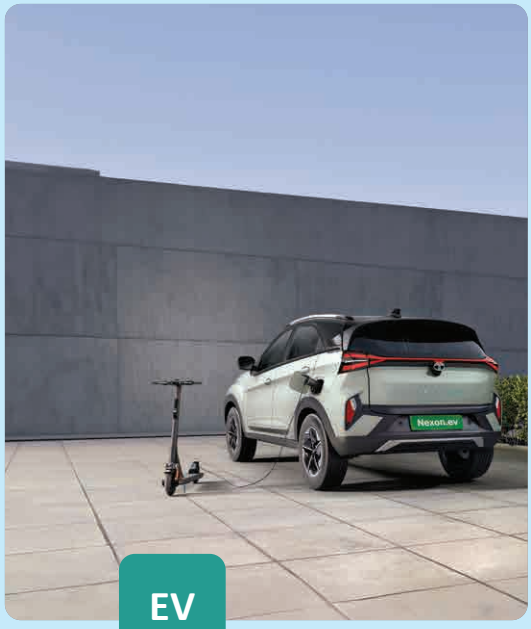
Hydrogen Fuel Cell-powered buses

Demonstrating a commitment to eco-friendly solutions, Tata Motors introduced Hydrogen Fuel Cell-powered buses – the first of their kind – to Indian Oil Corporation Ltd. These buses, inaugurated in New Delhi on September 25, 2023, represent a significant step towards advancing India's transportation sector.

PV

Twin-cylinder CNG range

Revolutionising the Indian CNG market, the twin-cylinder technology offers an innovative industry-first solution. The traditional single cylinder CNG is replaced with two smaller CNG cylinders placed below the luggage area, to ensure a larger usable boot. This innovation ensures a no-compromise solution for customers, and addresses the biggest customer concern in CNG vehicles.



EV

V2L and V2V technology

The new Nexon.ev offered an innovative bi-directional charging technology making the Nexon.ev capable for V2X. This technology allows the customer both vehicle-to-vehicle (V2V) charging and vehicle-to-load (V2L) charging, which offers more functionality to the Nexon.ev, and also provides an option for charging in emergency situations.

JLR

Open Innovation programme

Jaguar Land Rover devotes significant resources in its R&D activities.

JLR's Open Innovation programme was set up in 2022, to deliver global collaboration with start-ups, scale-ups, like-minded external organisations and the wider Tata Group, exploring opportunities in seven key areas: Electrification, Connectivity, Digital Services, Metaverse, Industry 4.0, Talent and Sustainability.

Advanced Future Energy Lab

JLR unveiled its new Future Energy Lab, a £250 million, state-of-the-art EV test facility at its engineering centre in Whitley, Coventry. The new 323,000 sq. ft. facility at JLR's Whitley Engineering Centre in Coventry will host more than £40 million of technological innovations to enable the rapid testing of EVs, including electric test rigs, Electric Drive Unit (EDU) manufacturing and electric vehicle systems test cells. This includes a series of extreme-weather climate chambers, capable of simulating the harshest of conditions – from -40°C up to 55°C.

Principal risks

1 Supply chain disruptions and commodity inflation

Operational

Description

The timely supply of components to manufacturing operations is crucial for meeting production schedules and satisfying consumer demand. Global geopolitical tensions and more frequent extreme weather events are posing challenges to supply chains, leading to disruptions in logistics and increased production costs and lead times. The rising demand for EVs may cause price volatility and availability issues for raw materials in the supply chain. Additionally, fluctuations in commodity prices can significantly impact cost competitiveness and overall profitability.

F M S

Consequences

Failure to manage supply chain disruptions could negatively impact production volume, revenue, profitability, customer satisfaction and reputation. The global economy has been significantly affected by the Russia-Ukraine conflict, causing high inflation. Red Sea shipping issues have resulted in ships being re-routed, impacting transport timings for materials and vehicles. Raw materials account for 62% of our revenue from operations. If we cannot find substitutes, pass price increases to customers, or secure supplies of scarce raw materials, our vehicle production, business and operational results may be significantly affected.

Mitigations and opportunities

The industrialisation of JLR's risk management framework has improved its time to recover from events impacting its global value chains as well as communication. JLR's Secure 23 and Secure 24 programmes ensure pipeline alignment for our future semiconductor supplies.

The successful Refocus 2.0 Transformation programme has been extended with greater focus on long-term supply chain resilience. We are diversifying sourcing, driving localisation of critical components, closely collaborating with suppliers and building a buffer stock, exercising financial instruments such as futures or options contracts for hedging against price increases and negotiating long-term contracts, wherever necessary.

Material cost reduction through Value Analysis and Value Engineering (VAVE) is also part of our strategy.

2 Global economic and geopolitical environment

Strategic

Description

We face exposure to changes in the global economic and geopolitical environment, along with other external factors such as trade tensions, recession, protectionism, wars, terrorism, natural disasters, humanitarian challenges, and pandemics, which could adversely affect our business. Recently, we have observed heightened geopolitical tensions globally.

F M H S

Consequences

We rely on key markets such as the UK, China, North America, India, and continental Europe for a significant portion of our revenues. A decrease in demand in these markets could harm our business, financial health and operations. We are also susceptible to cyclical fluctuations in demand for our CV business. Our global presence and sales profile make us sensitive to external factors, whether on a global or local scale.

Potential repercussions of such tensions, such as cross-border restrictions, sanctions, trade barriers, tariff imposition and shipping constraints could negatively impact our supply chains and consequently disrupt production schedules.

Mitigations and opportunities

We maintain vigilant monitoring and risk assessment of global developments, implementing mitigation plans as needed, and ensuring a balanced sales profile across key regions. Our diverse global customer base provides flexibility to respond to regional demand changes by adjusting sales mix or modifying product features/content during supply challenges, informed by our enhanced supply chain risk management framework.

Principal risks

3 IT systems, information security and data management

Operational

Description

We face IT risks due to the crucial role of our operations, including manufacturing and engineering design processes. As our vehicles become increasingly technologically advanced and connected, they may be vulnerable to unauthorised access. We also encounter risks associated with legacy IT systems and system migration projects. As data and digitisation progress within our products and services, safeguarding information assets and ensuring secure information services become vital enablers for enterprise success.

Consequences

Successful cyber-attacks pose a significant risk of business disruption, impacting our product and service delivery to customers. In extreme cases, this could even jeopardise the personal safety of our customers and colleagues. Compliance requirements are growing, and failing to meet obligations such as privacy and data protection laws may lead to enforcement actions, fines and damage to reputation and finances.

Delays or unsatisfactory outcomes in IT system migrations can materially harm our operations, financial performance, and reputation.

Mitigations and opportunities

Data Management provides the foundations for operational excellence that enables us to deliver new digital services and sustainable innovations for our customers. Information risk is managed strategically and operationally, through a comprehensive programme of initiatives. This is delivering measurable and prioritised improvements in enterprise information risk, enabled by stronger security foundations, capability maturity and complemented by continuous assurance. We continue to drive measurable improvements in cyber defence and other core security capabilities (e.g., security ecosystem, supply chain security, risk governance and cultural change). With appropriate awareness we can maximise our ability to exploit new technologies and use AI safely and responsibly.

4 Growth strategy and competitive business efficiency

Financial

Description

Delivering on our business and strategic objectives, including the electric transformation of JLR, sustaining the turnaround journey and achieving a structural transformation are key to realising our planned future profitability and cash generation through return on our investments. The pace at which electrification picks up and EV infrastructure develops will impact the business growth strategy.

Consequences

If our business fails to compete effectively on costs, it could lead to lower-than-expected returns on future investments, hindering our financial objectives and limiting our ability to reduce net debt and invest in new products. Failure to execute JLR's Reimagine plans would significantly impact our business, prospects, financial condition and operational results.

In the CV business, we are minimising discounting and focusing on retail market share. However, if consumers cannot absorb price increases or competitors continue aggressive discounting with better operating efficiencies, we will be affected. We are also growing our domestic business with large-scale fleet contracts under the pay-per-use model, but any failure to meet contract terms or specifications could harm our reputation and financial performance.

Our lead in EV adoption carries risks too. If EV adoption stalls or competitors offer superior technology, features, range and cost, it could severely impact us.

Mitigations and opportunities

JLR has launched the Refocus 2.0 programme to support the delivery of its Reimagine objectives. This operational transformation programme, alongside the strengthening of our existing programme governance, includes a focus on ensuring timely new product delivery to market, and management of the cost base of the business while also ensuring that we maximise profitability on our sales.

In commercial vehicle segment our demand-pull strategy has led to double-digit EBITDA margins, driven by improved retail market share through our superior product range. Digital solutions are becoming integral to our offerings, poised for scalability. We are developing appropriate business models and financial structures to manage risks in executing large-scale contracts, including pay-per-use models, with the establishment of payment security mechanisms.

In the Passenger and EV business, performance is improving due to successful facelifts, new launches, and strong demand. In EVs, MoUs have been signed to set up over 22,000 public chargers to boost adoption.

Our strong liquidity position allows us to navigate potential funding challenges in the future.

5 Human capital

Operational

Description

An engaged workforce with core capabilities in new and emerging skill areas, coupled with a collaborative, innovative and inclusive culture, is crucial for the success of our transformation efforts. Ensuring the safety, well-being and engagement of our employees is paramount, especially in the midst of a challenging external environment.

F M H I

Consequences

Failing to attract, retain, engage, and develop a diverse workforce with critical skills and capabilities will limit our ability to deliver innovative products and services. This constraint will hinder our ability to deploy the agility and speed of delivery necessary within the dynamic automotive industry.

Mitigations and opportunities

An essential part of our strategy is to cultivate an agile and capable organisation and culture through changes in our work methods, significant upskilling in ACES (Autonomous, Connected, Electric, Shared), and introducing a new business purpose and supporting behaviours. Our culture is built on four pillars: Be Bold, Own It, Solve Together and Being Empathetic.

Our diversity and inclusion strategy harnesses the unifying power of our differences and values the unique qualities of each member of our workforce.

Utilising digital capabilities and solutions through In Digital, as part of JLR's Refocus 2.0 programme, empowers a more efficient, focused, and productive workforce.

We also continue to respond to the rapidly evolving technological landscape where through our early careers, talent attraction and talent upskilling programmes we ensure our people have the skills and capabilities we need.

6 Distribution channels, retailer network and client service delivery

Operational

Description

Our goal is to ensure every customer experiences a seamless and consistent hassle-free journey, delighting them at every interaction. Retailer partners play a crucial role in reflecting our brand strategy and vision, effectively communicating our values through trained and capable representatives. This approach aims to successfully appeal to new and existing customers, driving high customer satisfaction and retention levels, in both sales and services.

F M H S

Consequences

Inconsistent customer experiences affect existing customer satisfaction and retention while also hindering the attraction of new customers. Failing to provide exceptional sales and service experiences online and offline can weaken our competitive position, potentially impacting business and financial performance. This situation may necessitate investments in evolving distribution models like D2C to meet evolving consumer preferences and market trends continuously.

Mitigations and opportunities

We have taken significant steps to improve dealer profitability and financial health. Simplifications have been made to online channels to enhance the customer experience. Retailer systems and tools have been enhanced to support sales, service, and technician representatives, ensuring a seamless customer experience. Other initiatives such as SOTA (Software Over the Air) and FOTA (Features Over The Air) services, Fleet Edge, Sampoorna Seva 2.0, and Uptime guarantee have been implemented to improve sales and after-sales experiences.

Additionally, exclusive Tata.ev stores have been inaugurated in Gurugram, providing an immersive experience to the EV community.

7 Brand positioning, innovation and rapid technology change

Strategic

Description

Staying competitive in the dynamic automotive market is increasingly challenging due to intensified competition from existing OEMs and new disruptive entrants, especially in the EV segment. Our ability to succeed in the future relies on staying abreast of evolving automotive trends, meeting changing customer demands through timely innovation and maintaining product competitiveness and quality.

Consequences

Failure to effectively position, maintain and communicate the strength of our brands, develop new products meeting customer preferences, or invest adequately in brand building, may impact product demand. Delays in launching technologically advanced products or the obsolescence of existing technology could lead customers to choose competitors or face sales restrictions in specific markets.

Mitigations and opportunities

Our proactive approach to viewing every regulatory change as an opportunity to enhance customer value and competitiveness has led to the success of our BSVI range, establishing its superiority. We are leading the development of LNG, battery electric and hydrogen-powered vehicles, leveraging our brand strength in the CV business.

In the PV business, we are increasing volumes through new product launches, multiple powertrain options and innovative features. Our twin-cylinder CNG products have gained significant traction. Recently, TPEM entered into an agreement with JLR for developing the 'Avinya' series of premium pure electric vehicles on the EMA platform. We unveiled the new brand identity 'Tata.ev', embodying sustainability, community and technology values.

JLR has unveiled a new corporate identity as part of transitioning to a House of Brands organisation, highlighting the unique DNA of each brand – Range Rover, Defender, Discovery and Jaguar. Jaguar is relaunching as an all-electric brand from 2025, targeting a more premium segment, aligning with our vision to be 'Proud Creators of Modern Luxury'.

JLR is prioritising the development of software defined vehicles; autonomous, connected, electrified and shared technologies, which is inherently sustainable. JLR delivers modernist design philosophy and authentically build desirability and emotional engagement for its brands. It means we create inspirational, exclusive and exceptional experiences for our clients.

8 Environmental regulations and compliance

Legal and Compliance

Description

The regulatory landscape is rapidly evolving, encompassing laws, regulations and policies that affect our facilities and vehicles. The shift from traditional fossil fuels to renewable energy sources, accelerating in pace, presents compliance challenges. Notably, tailpipe emissions for automotive companies and broader compliance requirements for carbon emissions during manufacturing and other operations are key considerations.

Consequences

To avoid significant civil and regulatory penalties, we may need to bear additional compliance costs. Competitors gaining advantages by adopting emissions-reducing and fuel-efficient technologies before us is a risk. Failure to maintain environmental compliance could lead to significant reputational damage, impacting our brands and sales materially. Additionally, regulatory and governmental policy changes may introduce additional operational costs such as carbon pricing and taxation.

Mitigations and opportunities

We are proactive in meeting environmental regulations and compliance, seeing each regulatory change as an opportunity to enhance product value and meet stakeholder aspirations.

We see opportunity to continuously develop and expand into low-carbon business models and services to support our future clients.

9 Climate change

Strategic

Description

Climate change presents both acute and chronic physical risks to our operations and value chain. It poses transition risks to our business, including technological advancements in products and changes in the market and policy landscape.

Consequences

The rising frequency of extreme weather events such as storms, floods, and heatwaves can directly and indirectly impact our supply chain and operations, potentially hindering our ability to meet demand. Changing customer preferences may drive increased demand for low-carbon vehicles, while policy directions may necessitate adopting low-carbon manufacturing practices. Mandates related to carbon pricing could also amplify transition risks for our business.

Mitigations and opportunities

Tata Motors acknowledges the short, medium and long-term physical and transition risks associated with climate change. We have set ambitious goals to achieve net zero GHG emissions by 2045 in the CV business and by 2040 in the PV business. Our intermediate targets include achieving RE100 before the end of this decade and we are committed to establishing interim Science-Based Targets. Our operational and product roadmaps are fully aligned with our ambitions and intermediate targets.

JLR has pledged to achieve approved Science-Based Targets as part of its carbon reduction strategy, aiming for net zero carbon emissions across its supply chain, products and operations by 2039.

F M N S

10 Litigation Regulatory

Legal and Compliance

Description

The litigation process is uncertain, and the outcome of individual matters cannot be predicted with certainty. The Company is facing various legal proceedings, claims and governmental investigations covering topics such as vehicle safety, defective components or systems, emissions and fuel economy, competition issues, alleged legal violations, labour disputes, contractual relationships with dealers and suppliers, intellectual property rights, product warranties and environmental matters.

Consequences

Non-compliance with laws and regulations may subject us to civil and/or criminal actions, resulting in damages, product recalls, regulatory measures, fines, and/or criminal sanctions, all of which could negatively impact our corporate reputation.

Mitigations and opportunities

We are dedicated to adhering to the laws and regulations in all countries where we conduct business. Our specialist teams diligently monitor legal and regulatory developments, establish detailed standards, and ensure awareness and compliance with these standards.

Integrating circular economy

Upholding the principles of circular economy, Tata Motors is driving TATVA – a circular economy framework working across Materials, Energy, Lifetime and Utilisation pathways for a holistic transformation.

At the Bharat Mobility Global Expo 2024 we showcased our Re.Wi.Re initiative, which symbolises our efforts to address the challenges of vehicle decommissioning and recycling. Through the deployment of Registered Vehicle Scrappage Facilities (RVSFs) and a comprehensive procedure for vehicle scrapping, we aim to contribute to environmental sustainability and responsible waste management practices.

The Re.Wi.Re facilities are designed to dismantle end-of-life PVs and CVs across all brands and ensures de-pollution. The resulting scrap is recycled and repurposed to maximise its value for future utilisation, thereby minimising waste and contributing to overall environmental improvement.

The facility is fully digitalised for hassle-free, paperless operations and has dedicated stations for the safe dismantling of components such as tyres, batteries, fuel, oils, liquids and gases. The vehicles go through a stringent documentation and dismantling process, curated individually for PV and CV requirements.

Planet

To promote planet resilience, our efforts are focused on three interconnected pillars of action that resonate the Tata Group's vision of environmental stewardship encapsulated by Project Aalingana.

Aalingana (Sanskrit: Embrace)

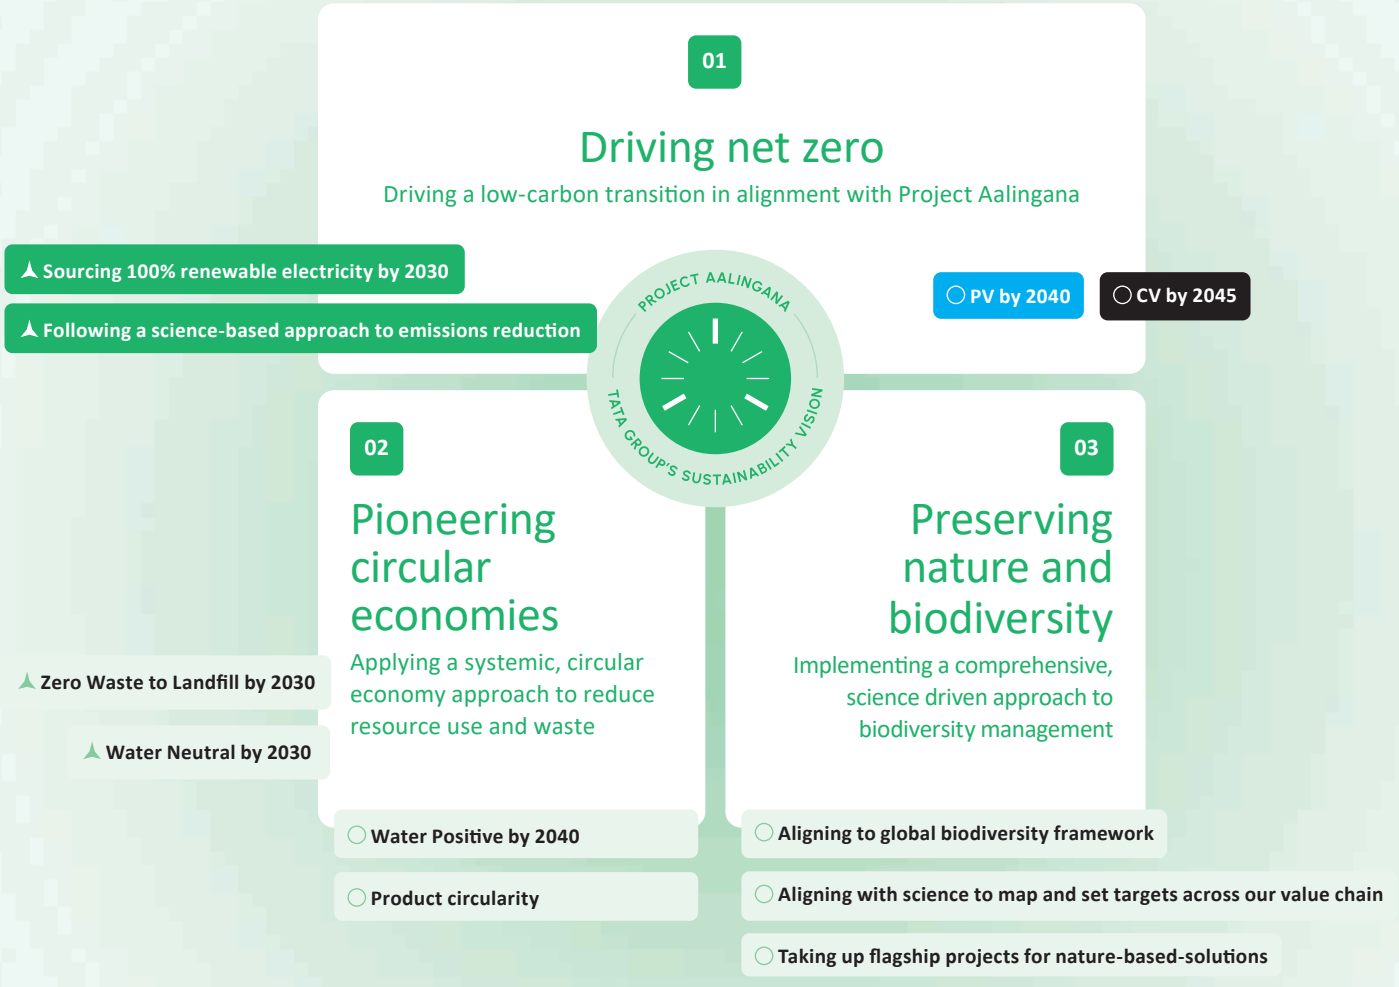
'Embrace' in Sanskrit, embodies the Tata Group's vision for a greener, cleaner, more sustainable and equitable future for the planet.

Our goal of achieving net zero by 2045, and our mission to secure the future with innovation focuses on a commitment to integrate sustainability into a business strategy by concentrating on three interlinked pillars of decarbonisation, circularity, and preserving nature and biodiversity.



○ Product driven ▲ Operational driven

“I believe that the social responsibility of our industrial enterprises should now extend, even beyond serving people, to the environment. This need is now fairly well recognised but there is still considerable scope for most industrial ventures to extend their support not only to human beings but also to the land, to the forests, to the waters and to the creatures that inhabit them.”

Driving net zero

We understand the urgency of the climate crisis. The world is shifting towards new energy sources, cleaner fuels, and sustainable business practices that minimise environmental harm. In tandem, we are developing new products, technologies, and business models that are environment-positive while creating exciting new opportunities for our customers and other stakeholders.

We have committed to a comprehensive decarbonisation strategy based on science and we are making our product line-up cleaner and greener. Our goal is to achieve net zero emissions by 2040 for our PV business and by 2045 for the CV business. We are signatories to the RE100 initiative, which means we are committed to using 100% renewable electricity by 2030.

We are driving innovation across our core business and working on various powertrain options to deliver zero-emission solutions across our product portfolio. We are exploring different engine technologies such as battery electric, hydrogen fuel cells, and even hydrogen-powered internal combustion engines.

We are also developing new low-carbon and sustainable materials, elimination of paints without compromising aesthetics and using IoT to improve operational efficiency. Our products use materials with high recyclability and we are working towards improving the recycled content in our input materials.
We are proud to be leading the EV revolution in India, with our passenger car and commercial vehicle electric subsidiaries playing a major role in putting clean, electric vehicles on the road.

Advancing supply chain sustainability roadmap

Supply chain emissions, though smaller, are critical to decarbonisation. AIKYAM, our collaborative platform, tackles this challenge by fostering innovation, knowledge-sharing, and co-creation with suppliers for a holistic, accelerated transition to a sustainable future.

Reducing embodied emissions

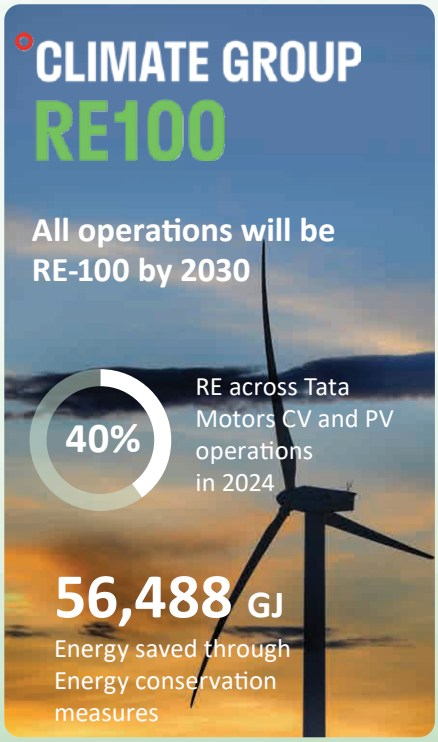
By adopting the principles of circular economy we are focusing on reducing embodied emissions in our materials.

Reimagining the supply chain JLR

JLRs 'Reimagine' strategy directly addresses supply chain challenges by fostering collaboration with suppliers. Through knowledge sharing and co-creation initiatives, JLR aims to accelerate the transition towards a sustainable future throughout our entire value chain.

Upscaling renewable energy usage

Our strategy tackles emissions through 100% renewable energy transition, energy conservation, and phasing out fossil fuels in logistics. We are making significant progress on renewables and conservation to achieve a greener future. All operations will be RE-100 by 2030.



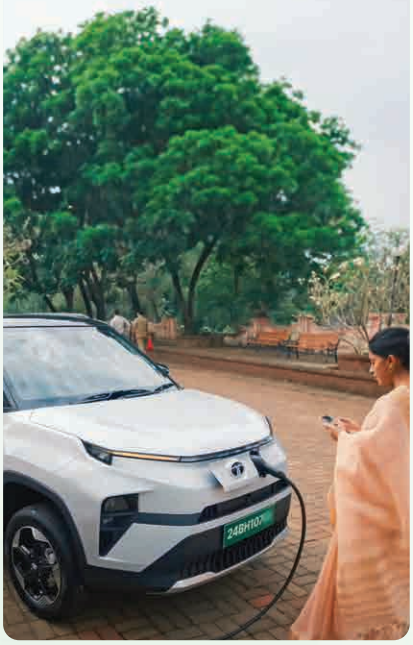
Optimising operations JLR

JLR prioritises operational sustainability through on-site efficiency initiatives, renewable energy integration, and process electrification to minimise energy consumption and emissions. We have an ambitious SBTi target of a 46% reduction in direct operational emissions by 2023.

Downstream

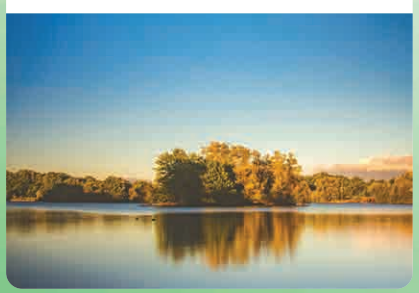
Tata UniEVerse

Synchronised efforts to develop a holistic e-mobility ecosystem to accelerate the adoption of EVs in India.



Increasing renewable energy usage JLR

Our global renewable energy strategy focuses on increasing self-generated power to exceed 35% of global consumption by 2030. This approach reduces reliance on the local grid and minimises the need for purchased grid-based renewable energy.



Expand EV portfolio

We are committed to decarbonising our downstream operations, especially from our use phase and our channel partners. We have already embarked on a business transformation drive to accelerate this process.

Decarbonising together: Partnering for progress JLR

In the collective pursuit of net zero emissions, JLR is committed to a two-pronged approach. We are actively electrifying our product portfolio, while simultaneously collaborating with our downstream value chain to decarbonise the supply of key materials. Through SBTi targets, we aim for a significant reduction of 60% in downstream emissions per vehicle kilometre across the entire use phase of our vehicles.

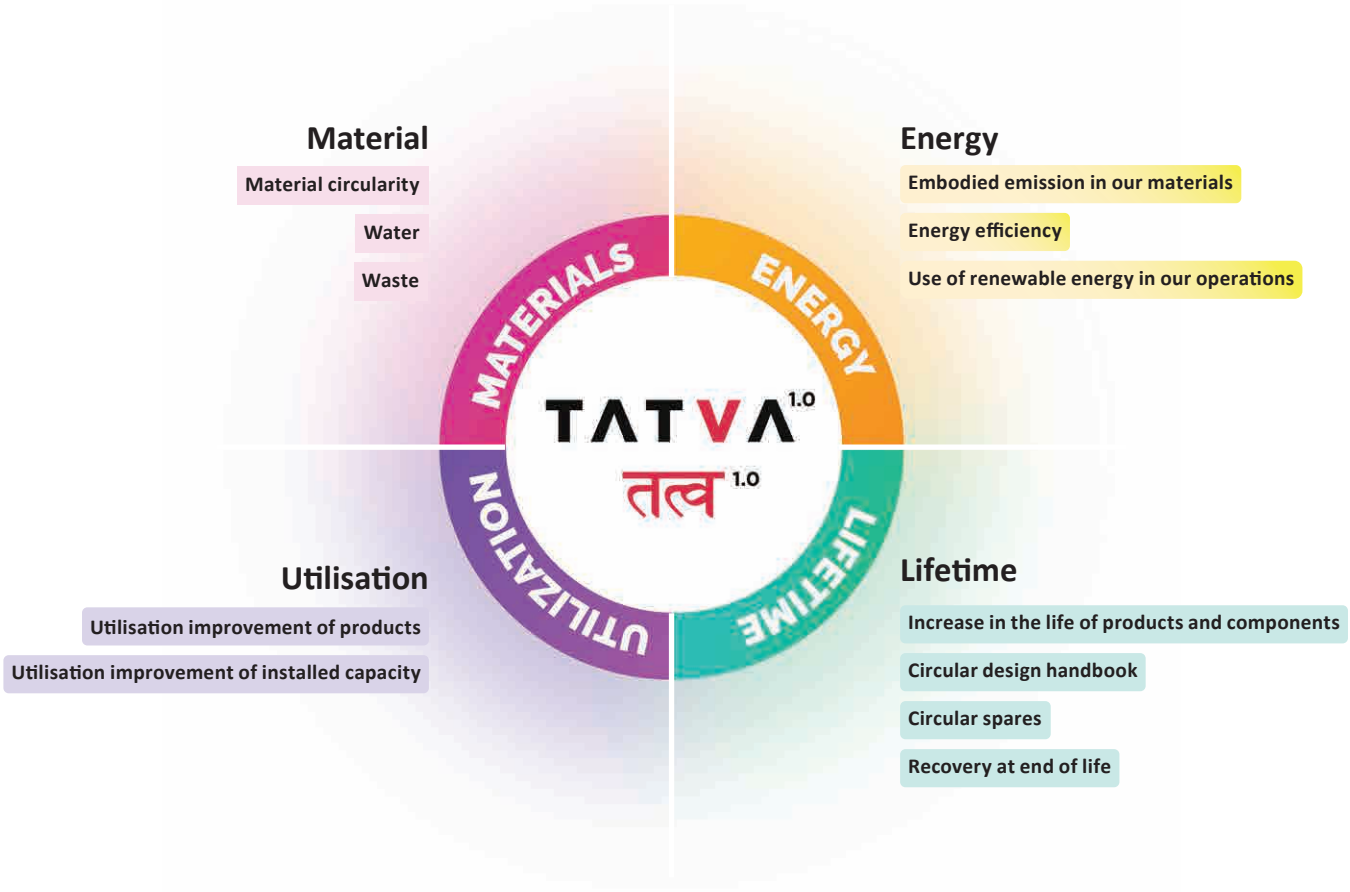
Pioneering circular economies

We have developed a comprehensive framework 'Tatva' to reaffirm our dedication to be a circular business. Tatva signifies the integration of circularity principles across our entire organisation, impacting our design, engineering, procurement, customer care, aftermarket support, and end-of-life management processes. This will result in minimising usage of virgin materials, reducing our material carbon footprint, extending life of our products and parts and improving product utilisation.

By mapping the interconnection between various functions, we aim to streamline information flow and establish clear targets across metrics. These metrics track our progress towards becoming a circular business while establishing a standardised definition and measurement system in the absence of industrywide standards. Tatva represents our unwavering commitment to a more sustainable future for our business and the environment.

Key elements of our framework along the pathways



Tatva encompasses

12 key elements

22 metrics

Focused on four pathways*:
Energy, Material, Lifetime and Utilisation

* Pathways as described in the Circular Cars Initiative by WBCSD and WEF

Circularity through design

At Tata Motors, we are committed to upholding sustainable practices and our end-of-life product management strategies. We continuously strive to improve our products' recyclability quotients through improved designs, selection of sustainable materials, and facilitating easy dismantling.

Our design-for-recycling approach seeks to minimise waste and environmental impact. Currently, over 85% of materials used in our vehicles are recyclable and recoverable.

In order to promote end-of-life management of our products, the dismantling information of Tata Nexon EV, Tata Nexon MCE, Tata Tiago, Tata Tigor, Tata Altroz, and Tata Harrier is published on IDIS (International Dismantling Information System) website. This information is useful to dismantlers for the safe disposal of Tata vehicles.

Circularity through re-use and re-manufacture

Our practices to re-use and re-manufacture promotes circularity in the following ways:

- 'Tata Assured' offers certified used cars through its 150+ outlets, extending vehicle life and reducing landfill waste
- For businesses, 'TATA OK' provides a trusted platform with 350+ dealers to buy, sell, or exchange commercial vehicles with 120-point inspections, warranties, and financing
- TATA OK@Home offers convenient doorstep evaluations for buying or selling used vehicles

Life Cycle Assessments (LCAs)

In line with our commitment to sustainability, Tata Motors conducts thorough Life Cycle Assessments (LCAs) to evaluate the environmental impacts of our products. These assessments cover resource use, ecological consequences such as greenhouse gas (GHG) emissions and ecotoxicity, as well as human health considerations including human toxicity and ionising radiation. We quantify these impacts using metrics such as Global Warming Potential, Acidification Potential, Eutrophication, Abiotic Depletion, Ozone Layer Depletion, and Photochemical Ozone Creation.

LCA methodology and approach

Our LCA approach, adhering to ISO 14040 and ISO 14044 standards, comprehensively evaluates the total environmental impacts or ecological burden arising from the entire lifecycle of our products. This includes stages from raw material extraction through manufacturing, usage, and end-of-life disposal. Using our rigorous methodology, we have completed Cradle to Gate calculations, commonly referred to as supplier emissions, for several models including Nexon BS 6, Altroz Dark, Tiago BS 6, Tigor BS 6, and Puch BS 6. For upcoming models like Sierra and Avinya, we have set targets for decarbonisation and material circularity, driving these objectives systematically into our development process.

Our initiatives

1. Integrating innovative technologies such as nanotechnology, utilising natural fiber composites, repurposing pre-consumer waste for textiles, promoting the recovery of precious materials, and extending the drainage period of oils
2. Using recycled materials such as upto 7% recycled steel, 40% recycled aluminium and 20% recycled glass in vehicle components
3. Conducting lifecycle impact assessments to identify major hot spots so that corrective actions can be taken to reduce the vehicle's carbon footprint

Enhancing vehicle sustainability

We are committed to:

- Increasing recycled content in vehicles
- Streamlining designs for longer life and end-of-life management
- Collaborating with suppliers through our AIKYAM forum to enhance circular business practices

Re.Wi.Re

The state-of-the-art Tata Motors Re.Wi.Re. facility is designed to dismantle end-of-life passenger and commercial vehicles of all brands. These facilities will drive responsible scrapping and recycling of end-of-life vehicles by using globally benchmarked and optimised processes. With the launch of Re.Wi.Re., we aim to offer better value capture in downstream businesses, generate employment, and support the minimisation of environmental pollution caused by aged vehicles. We are committed to expanding Re.Wi.Re. facilities across the country to promote circularity and enhance and organise its value chain play.

Tata Prolife

Over the past 23 years, Tata Motors Prolife has focused on remanufacturing old and used vehicle parts to products standards, extending their life cycles and reducing waste. This initiative covers a wide range of vehicle aggregates, including engines, clutch assemblies, cabins, after-treatment systems, and fuel injection equipment. By adopting a circular economy model, Tata Motors Prolife aims to redefine growth by emphasising a Take-Make-Recycle approach, which minimises resource consumption and waste generation. Through salvaging processes and re-machining, the initiative enables the reuse of engine parts, reducing the need for virgin raw materials and resources required for manufacturing.

Waste management

At Tata Motors, we approach waste management through the lens of circularity. We are prioritising recycling and co-processing to eliminate disposal to landfill and incineration by 2030. Our innovative Circularity Framework guides our efforts to extract value from all waste streams, ensuring their safe and sustainable management.

Waste is segregated as per material type and shape and sold to recyclers for conversion and utilisation. We ensure the sale of all flexible and rigid plastic packaging to authorised plastic waste processors for recycling. Hazardous and other Waste are similarly routed to authorised recyclers or re-processors for material recovery or to co-process for energy recovery. We are also working on a comprehensive plan to ensure maximum reclamation of waste sand from our foundries to minimise fresh sand consumption.

Water management

Tata Motors acknowledges the significance of water as a shared and scarce resource. We are committed to using water efficiently by maximising effluent recycling and re-use at all our manufacturing plants, and minimising leakage and wastage. We have created water bodies and groundwater recharge structures within our manufacturing sites wherever feasible. Going forward, our approach will be holistic to encompass all aspects of sourcing water, its optimal utilisation. We will also be intensifying recharge efforts for achieving a 'Water Neutral' status by 2030.

Preserving nature and biodiversity

We proudly uphold our rich legacy of nurturing biodiverse sanctuaries in proximity to our manufacturing sites throughout India. As pointed out by our founder Mr. JRD Tata, “We didn’t need to create a lake to make a truck. Yet we did,” referring to the creation of what we now know as the Sumanth Sarovar. This lake has blossomed into a veritable oasis amidst an urban industrial landscape, symbolising our commitment to balancing industrial growth with environmental stewardship.

Leveraging Project Aalingana, we are implementing a comprehensive, science-driven approach to biodiversity management. This strategy extends beyond our operations to encompass our entire value chain and the broader ecosystem.

Science-Based Targets for Nature (SBTN)

Acknowledging the value chain impact on Biodiversity, Tata Motors has joined the corporate engagement programme for Science-based Targets for Nature. This initiative seeks to reshape economic systems to safeguard our collective environmental heritage – our air, water, land, biodiversity, and oceans.

Over the past year we have conducted extensive biodiversity baseline assessments at key sites and over 1,300 species were identified. This foundational research informs our Biodiversity Management Plan leveraging biodiversity indices as key indicators of environmental quality and richness. Through targeted conservation efforts, we aim to not only create resilient habitats but also to create lighthouse projects that demonstrate the power of scientific rigor in preserving biodiverse urban and industrial environments, hopefully inspiring a far greater collective effort amongst Indian and global industries.

Other Effective Area-based Conservation Measures (OECM) integration

Tata Motors has taken a strategic decision to enlist the Biodiverse habitats in its premises and around each of its campuses under the OECM framework to demonstrate stewardship in biodiversity and ecosystem management. This government-backed initiative allows private actors to contribute to biodiversity conservation, aligning with government and UNDP-backed national and international commitments. Beyond our campuses, we are actively encouraging and enabling our value chain partners to participate in creating OECM-aligned habitats across India.

Flagship projects

In response to the global biodiversity crisis, Tata Motors is committed to investing in Flagship Biodiversity projects that promise transformative change. Focused on habitat restoration and the conservation of umbrella species, these initiatives are poised to become catalysts for collaboration and innovation, underpinned by scientific rigor. Details on these pioneering projects will be unveiled in due course, marking our ongoing dedication to biodiversity conservation.

A workplace culture that promotes growth with empathy

At Tata Motors, our people are key to maintaining our competitive edge. We prioritise creating an environment of empowerment through well-defined policies that reflect empathy, celebrate meritocracy, and offer ample professional and personal development opportunities.

We remain committed to empowering our people and offering them safe and healthy workspaces to work and grow in. Diversity, equity and fair play are values that we uphold and exemplify through our ways of working. As Tata Motors continues to reinvent itself in its journey to stay ahead, we ensure that we remain attractive for the best talent in the world and nurture and grow the exceptional talent we have.

Since the launch of our Culture Credo and Leadership Behaviours in 2021, we have measured progress through annual Employee Culture Surveys (supplemented by biannual Pulse surveys) conducted by a third-party to ensure anonymity. Our latest survey, with an 80% response rate from over 7,800 employees, demonstrates positive results. Our Engagement Score has steadily climbed from 59% in 2022 to 71% in 2024, reflecting employee buy-in to our cultural transformation efforts. This success is further supported by our voluntary employee turnover rate, which has improved from 7.7% last year to 7.1% this year.

Promotion of gender diversity

We have made significant progress in embracing and promoting gender diversity across Tata Motors. Targeted recruitment strategies of market mapping for leadership roles, broad basing of skills and industries for mid-senior roles along with focused employee referral and social media campaigns have helped us increase the representation of women across various functions and leadership levels. This has resulted in a significant uptick in diversity hiring.

To increase gender diversity on the shop floor, we made significant improvements in the hiring and engaging with inclusive policies, infrastructure, and our flagship 'Kaushalya' upskilling initiative.

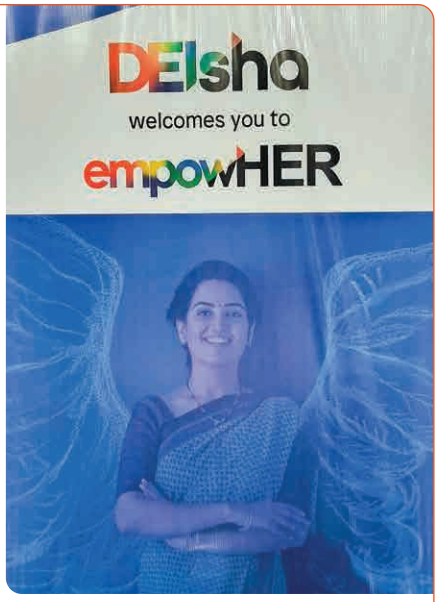
empowHER: Empowering Women at Tata Motors

Launched in November 2023, empowHER is a unique programme designed to empower women professionals at Tata Motors. Recognising the challenges women face in the workplace, empowHER seeks to tackle these head-on through a series of interactive sessions.

During the reporting year, these sessions focused on leadership development, communication, negotiation, work-life balance, and mental well-being, equip women with the tools needed to excel. Targeted at women at the L3 and L4 levels, the programme welcomed a diverse group with varying experiences. Interactive sessions were complemented with valuable mentorship and coaching, providing participants with personalised insights and guidance. This comprehensive approach encouraged participants to develop action plans outlining their individual goals and strategies for achieving them. Additionally, the programme fostered a supportive network through opportunities for women to connect and collaborate, building a strong community within Tata Motors.

empowHER has helped participants by boosting their self-awareness and confidence. It helped the women refine their leadership and communication skills, while also enhancing their negotiation techniques and work-life balance. Participants reported increased motivation and broadened professional networks. This initiative has demonstrably shattered barriers and created a more inclusive workplace at Tata Motors.



ONEderful Conversations

To create a culture that helps women and other underrepresented groups sustain their careers, Tata Motors has kickstarted ONEderful Conversations – sensitisation programme for an identified pool of people managers that helps them mirror reflective constructs like biases, allyship, etc. More than 1,200 people managers have been covered this year.

Project Samavesh

In a significant move towards fostering diversity and inclusion, Tata Motors Pune's Commercial Vehicle Business Unit (CVBU) has embarked on a pioneering initiative- Project Samavesh to provide employment opportunities to transgender individuals, starting from January 2024. This initiative, which began as a pilot project, signifies a deepened commitment to embracing diversity and promoting dignity within the workplace.

In phase one of the drive, Tata Motors offered employment through our service provider to 17 transgender individuals across various functions within the organisation, including cafeteria services, human resources and security. This step provided job opportunities and highlighted our dedication to creating an inclusive environment that celebrates the entire spectrum of gender identities.

Succession and capability building

Consistent capability-building initiatives are needed to create a future ready workforce. The Learning and Development function at Tata Motors addresses this critical need through regular assessments of the external environment, the capabilities in demand, and designs appropriate initiatives for our workforce.

Succession planning

Organisation Talent Review (OTR) and Succession Planning are annual processes at Tata Motors to review, identify and develop talent for leadership roles with the objective of ensuring management continuity – the right people taking up the right positions at the right time.

Inputs from OTR and the Succession Planning processes drive actionable development plans that are deployed to ensure completion of development goals of successors through

- Experience (GEMS Projects, role enhancements)
- Exposure (Cross Functional Teams or CFTs, deputation)
- Education (formal learning interventions)

Leadership training

We address developmental focus areas for nominees of Succession Planning through customised programmes, partnering with top global business schools and knowledge partners such as Tata Management Training Centre (TMTC), offering a comprehensive blend of experience, exposure and education.

Brilliance scholarship programme: Bridging the education gap

Tata Motors proudly initiated the Brilliance Scholarship Program to support students from the AA category and belonging to Economically Weaker Sections (EWS), with the goal of narrowing the gap in educational accessibility.

This programme values comprehensive excellence beyond academics, assessing candidates on:

- Academic performance
- Extracurricular involvement
- Social contributions

We collaborated with colleges to identify eligible candidates and conducted informative sessions to explain the programme's objectives. Engaging branding initiatives within campuses amplified awareness.

With each scholarship awarded, we move closer to our vision of a society where all have access to quality education, regardless of socio-economic constraints.

The Brilliance Scholarship Program aims to:

- Promote equal opportunities
- Inspire academic excellence
- Break the cycle of poverty
- Cultivate inclusivity and diversity

EVOLVE and take charge

Learn, Lead, Grow Employee Connects (EVOLVE) fosters a culture of continuous development at Tata Motors. This modular platform empowers employees by initiating development dialogues at all levels. Business leaders champion EVOLVE, sharing immersive experiences through programmes they curate. Leaders then facilitate focused cohort sessions, fostering active participation from managers and employees. EVOLVE's call to action – 'Own your development' – inspires employees to take charge of their growth journey.

An iFactory (Industry 4.0 solutions enabled smart factory) has been set up at Tata Motors, Jamshedpur as part of the iFactory Network project under the aegis of the Ministry of Heavy Industries (MHI), Scheme for Enhancement of Competitiveness in the Capital Goods Sector- Phase II. The Centre for Industry 4.0, Pune, spearheaded by the Ministry of Heavy Industries (MHI), implemented the project.

Focus areas:

- Co-creating the future of manufacturing
- Accelerating Industry 4.0 technologies
- Unlocking digital transformation

Skills framework on MyLXP platform

Given our focus on domain specialisation, digitalisation, sustainability and ACESS, it was important to have a skills framework mapped to job roles. We have implemented the Skills Framework at Tata Motors, which is used for role-based development, aspirational career readiness, individual development plan as well as for domain specialisation. The framework was executed across the business units.

- Comprehensive skills mapping
  We meticulously identified, defined, and categorised essential skills across proficiency levels. Subject matter experts, functional heads, and senior leadership played a crucial role in completing this task within a short timeframe
- Skill-job alignment
  Each unique job role is mapped to required skills with proficiency levels (basic, intermediate, proficient, master). Clear skills definitions ensure alignment with job requirements
- Personalised learning
  Our Learning Experience Platform (MyLXP) assesses skills, identifies gaps, and recommends AI-powered learning pathways. This includes e-learning courses, classroom programmes, and multimedia resources
- Career-focused development
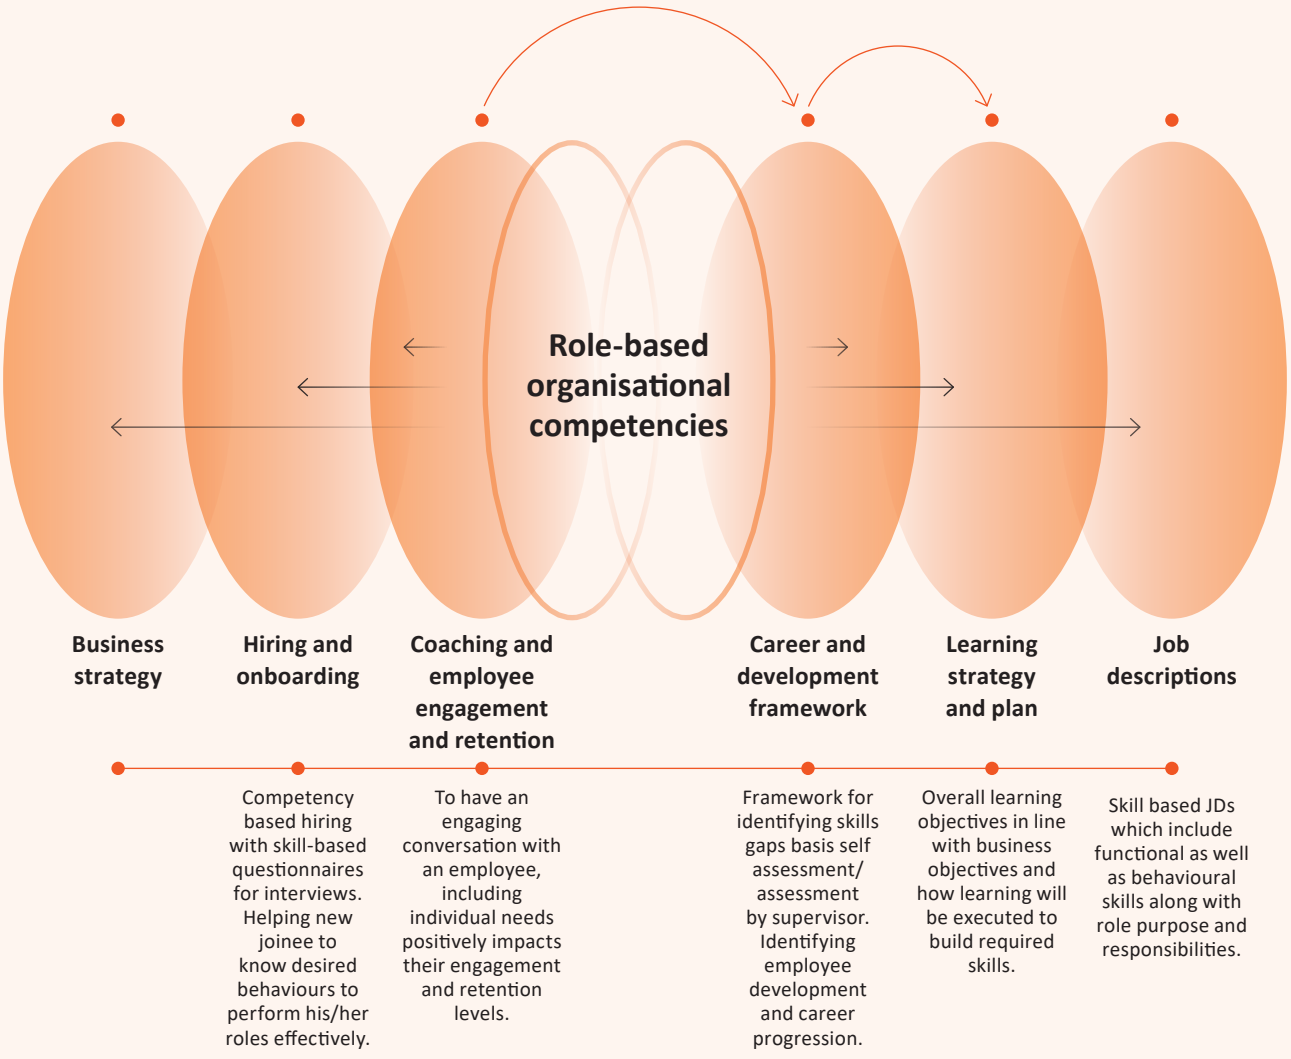
  AI recommendations cater to both current and aspirational roles, supporting employee career advancement



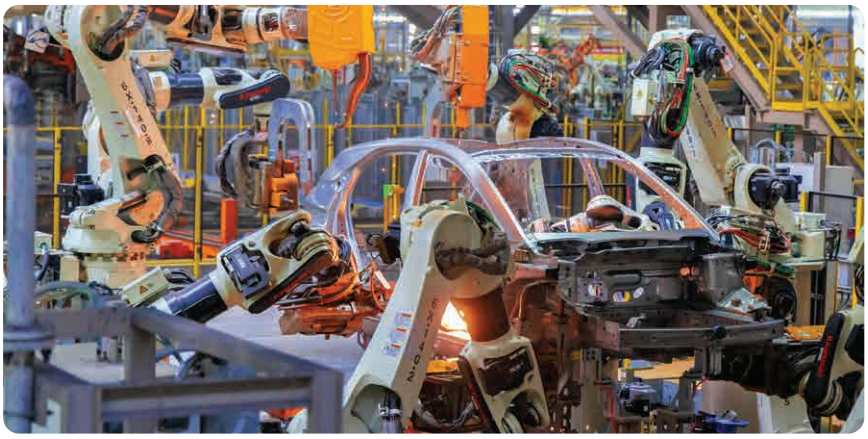
Fostering strong industrial relations

Wage settlement

Tata Motors fosters strong relationships with its seven unions, representing 14,000 technicians. Open communication and collaboration are key, with joint forums addressing challenges. Long-term wage settlements are established through discussions, considering future needs. Productivity-linked settlements in Sanand and Lucknow showcase successful collaboration between management and unions.

Drishti 2.0 for technicians

Tata Motors' Drishti 2.0 – a digital platform as a mobile application empowers technicians by providing easy access to payslips, leave cards, and travel expense submissions. This streamlines processes and frees up valuable work time. The platform fosters continuous learning through bite-sized video modules, enhancing skill development. Digital notice boards ensure clear communication across the shop floor. Drishti 2.0 reflects Tata Motors' commitment to a dynamic and empowered work environment through technology.



The Ford – Acquisition – Integration story

Tata Motors subsidiary, Tata Passenger Electric Mobility (TPEM), signed a Job Transfer MoU (Triparty MoU between TPEML, Ford India Private Ltd. and FIPL Union.) on July 26, 2022 and acquired Ford Sanand plant on January 10, 2023.

All employees coming from Ford have been assimilated seamlessly and the Sanand 2 plant will play a pivotal role in Tata Motors growth in passenger mobility and EV domain.

Higher education: Building trust

A unique initiative saw all workmen-level employees offered higher education programmes in Industry 4.0, smart manufacturing, and EV systems through a partnership with Ganpat University. This not only upskilled the workforce but also fostered trust in Tata Motors, marking a first in the industry for such a comprehensive sponsorship programme.

People integration and growth

TPEM extended its 'Care & Belongingness' philosophy through initiatives like Sangam, encouraging cultural assimilation and employee well-being. Notably, 51 workmen received promotions within a year, showcasing internal talent development. Six Sigma training further bolstered problem-solving skills, aiming for 100% Green Belt certification among staff – a first for Tata Motors plants.

A win-win cultural assimilation

A blend of best practices from both companies was adopted, with an emphasis on Ford's strengths. The Sanand plant now operates under an 'inverted pyramid' structure, empowering staff and fostering a 'Serve and Care' environment. This shift from a command-and-control model has resulted in a leaner staff structure.

Attaining leadership in health and safety

Tata Motors places utmost importance on quality and safety in its strategic roadmap, ensuring employee well-being despite external challenges. We invest in safety technologies and R&D to deliver the safest vehicles across segments. Our facilities uphold standardised systems, certified for ISO TS 16949 (QMS standard for the automotive industry), ISO 9001 and ISO 14001 (Environmental Management System), as well as for ISO 45001:2018 Occupational health and safety management systems.

Hazard Identification and Risk Assessment (HIRA)

All worker activities are mapped, and hazards are accordingly identified based on the nature of activity, history of incidents and experience of workers. The hazard categories considered are: Trivial, Tolerable, Moderate, Substantial, and Intolerable. For all such identified hazards, risk is calculated based on severity and likelihood.

Critical behaviours were identified based on the 33,000 safety observations and incident analysis for past 3.5 years.

- Follow SOP/work instructions
- Safe driving
- Safe walking and road manners
- Right PPE usage
- Responsible mobile use

Safety governance framework

We have a robust governance mechanism to monitor occupational health and safety, whereby reviews are conducted at multiple levels. Safety performance is a part of the corporate and plant Balanced Scorecard (BSC), measured through Proactive Safety Index (PSI) II.

- Performance reviewed by: The Safety, Health and Sustainability (SHS) Committee of Board of Directors once in four months
- Monthly review done by: The Business unit head (ED, TML & MD TMPV and TPEM)-led SHE Council
- Detailed reviews at the factory level undertaken by: The Apex Committee (led by the plant heads), various sub-committees for Safety Standards, and the Factory Implementation Committees (FIC)
- Review for non-manufacturing areas: Through focused safety reviews are conducted at defined frequencies at regional offices, with the Customer Service and Warehouse teams

Every TML plant has a zero-incident plan

Advancing safety standards towards achieving Zero Harm

Tata Motors remains steadfast in fostering a world-class safety culture, prioritising the well-being of our employees and stakeholders across all operational facets. Our commitment was prominently highlighted during the 2023 Tata Group Workshop, where safety discussions with the Chairman took central stage. Throughout FY24, the Zero Incident Plan continued to be a cornerstone, featuring 31 themes and 51 major actions led by a senior leader, ensuring its sustained effectiveness.

A robust governance system ensures multi-level safety reviews, with the SHS Committee of the Board serving as the apex review body. Monthly evaluations by SHE Councils and Apex Committees at plant levels oversee safety performance, while focused safety reviews are conducted in non-manufacturing areas at defined intervals, engaging Customer Service and Warehouse teams.

Continuing our commitment to enhancing safety culture, we engaged external experts DSS+ to fortify our approach across four pillars: Leadership and Governance, Operations and Risk, Business Partners, and People and Performance. Strategically aligned actions for FY24 focus on proactive governance and fostering a Zero Harm Culture through leadership behaviours communicated across all levels.

In operations and risk, our Model Areas Initiative showcased exemplary safety role modelling, with leaders demonstrating adherence to safety standards. Our systematic approach to hazard identification and mitigation at Critical to Safety Stations led to a significant reduction in injuries. Furthermore, initiatives such as Drive Zero targeted risk areas with a focus on defensive driving and safety checks.

Embracing digitalisation, we implemented various applications leveraging video analytics and AI, particularly at Jamshedpur and Sanand-1. Our long-term business partner strategy integrates Contractor Safety Management activities, ensuring partner accountability and utilisation.

Interaction and engagement with business partners have been paramount, with initiatives like focused contractor employee safety targeting critical areas. In People and Performance, we empower our workforce through training and recognition programmes, exemplified by commendable Self-Directed Team achievements and focused training sessions on risk perception.

Despite our efforts, there were two unfortunate workplace-related fatal incidents. They were thoroughly investigated with systemic actions implemented across our Company. Reflecting on our performance, our total recordable case frequency rate increased slightly, underscoring the need for continual improvement.

We remain resolute in our dedication to enhancing safety performance, as evidenced by our initiatives and recognitions during FY24.

Community

Reaching one million and more

In our quest to create a meaningful impact, Tata Motors, in FY24, through its CSR interventions, could reach one million plus underserved community members across the country.

Using the approach for 'More for Less for More', we narrowed the gap between our aspirations and the available resources, achieving pan-India scale for several projects. The harmonisation of our programmes, focus towards proximate communities, digital enablement in our CSR interventions, consistent monitoring and evaluation, synergies developed with partners and the trust fostered with our communities, enabled our efforts to flourish and create multiplier impact.

JLR Planet regenerate

Planet Regenerate is our strategy to positively transform the impact of our business on the climate, on resource use and on nature and biodiversity. Central to this strategy is our aim to be carbon net zero by 2039 through the decarbonisation of our manufacturing and operations, our supply chain and vehicles in use. To provide a pathway towards this long-term aim, we published science-based targets in March 2022, for ambitious CO_2e reduction by 2030.

I

Carbon net zero

To achieve carbon net zero by 2039, we have set ambitious CO_2e emissions reduction targets for 2030. We aim to reduce emissions by 46% across our own operations (scope 1 and 2), 60% per vehicle km, across the use of our vehicles and 54% per vehicle across our value chain (inclusive of our supply chain and use of our vehicles). These reductions provide a pathway for our long-term net zero ambition.

Over 220 biofuel and electric HGVs to replace UK road fleet

Our UK road freight vehicle fleet, operational from April 2024, will reduce annual CO_2e emissions on UK roads by 8,433 tonnes, the equivalent of planting 350,000 trees.

Performance against targets

Scope 1 and 2 emissions

To reduce our operational emissions, we are focusing on reducing energy consumption, increased use of renewable energy and reduction in gas consumption and combustion at our sites through electrification.

In FY24, a range of efficiency projects were implemented across our global production sites including the optimisation of our paint booths reducing gas combustion at Solihull, UK, the use of management software to power down actuators during shutdowns and off periods at Nitra, Slovakia, the installation of more efficient motors in our paint shop at Halewood, UK and the installation of LED lighting at Itatiaia, Brazil.

Scope 3

Our scope 3 'use of sold products' emissions for FY24 were 246.4 gCO_2e per vehicle km. This was a reduction of 3.2% compared to FY23 and a reduction of 3.7% compared to the SBTi baseline. Our scope 3 'combined use of sold products and purchased goods and services' emissions for FY24 were 62.23 tCO_2e/vehicle. This was a 2.6% reduction compared to FY23 and a reduction of 3.2% compared to the SBTi baseline.

This meant that in terms of absolute emissions, our scope 3 emissions were 26.9 $MtCO_2e$, a reduction of 17.9% compared to our FY20 baseline. Despite the improvements shown at per vehicle level, this reduction was primarily due to lower production volumes compared to the baseline year.

II

Circular economy and resource efficiency

In the last 12 months we have developed a circular economy strategy based on a single key principle – the decoupling of value creation from resource use. Our world currently depends on the consumption of virgin natural resources to generate value. If we are to meet our net zero ambition, we must change that dynamic primarily through three mission statements: Circular resources: We must act as a responsible user of resources by maximising reuse, replenishment and recycling. Circular products and services: We must provide timeless modern luxury through enhanced product utility and longevity. Circular enablers: We must create circular value through systemic collaboration, innovation and partnerships.

Sites in scope: Solihull, Halewood, Castle Bromwich, EMPC, Gaydon, Whitley, Nitra, Brazil, China JV (50% due to financial control).

Our strategy is based around three key focus areas

Circular resources

To ensure we act as a responsible user of resources we have set specific long-term goals to drive an increase in the quantity of recycled content in our products, to reduce waste to landfill and to energy recovery, and reduce our consumption of water per vehicle produced.

Materials: At least double and aim to treble recycled content in new products from 2028

Waste: Achieve zero waste to landfill and increase non-metallic waste sent for recycling/reuse to 80% by FY30

Water: Reduce our water consumption per vehicle produced by a third by FY30

Circular products and services

We intend to increase the share of products and services which contribute to our circular economy goals by growing our capability to reuse parts and vehicles. This means growing our lease and subscription offers to establish a 'serial usership' model, which supports the creation and retention of the value that is inherent in our products. The transition from the traditional linear 'make and sell' business model to a more sustainable, circular mobility model will ensure we retain a high degree of control over the resources embedded in our products.

Circular enablers

We are engaging with partners across the value chain to learn, collaborate and innovate to support delivery of the circular resources and circular products and services. These enablers rely on a strong supplier base and key innovative partners with a common vision to create systems where value is distributed along the product lifecycle. The enablers include the setting up of a circularity hub, driving circularity improvements throughout the entire supply chain via our Circular Supply Chain department and meet-up events to inspire and mobilise our sustainability innovation ecosystem by driving circular solutions through systemic value chain collaboration.

III

Nature and biodiversity

Nature and biodiversity form an important part of our sustainability strategy. We are developing a new policy to set out our commitments to counteract nature and biodiversity loss. Alongside this, we are developing our strategic approach to consider our material impacts, dependencies, risks and opportunities for nature and biodiversity across our direct operations, supply chain and wider value chain.

Biodiversity at our facilities

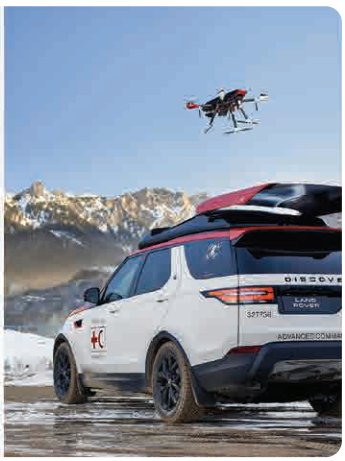
The Electric Propulsion Manufacturing Centre (EPMC) at Wolverhampton, UK is managing existing habitats around the site and within the adjacent Clewley Coppice woodland to support important species such as badgers, field mice and water voles. In Slovakia, our Nitra facility has a renewed agreement with Constantine the Philosopher University to continue biodiversity monitoring. The monitoring has shown that as native habitats have recovered, there has been a natural reintroduction of many native species of birds, insects and small mammals. In China, sustainable development practices at the Changshu facility support biodiversity-related initiatives to monitor plant and animal species, as well as a poster initiative to educate and raise awareness around protecting the environment.

JLR Engage for good

As a global citizen, we recognise the importance of meeting the significant social and environmental challenges of our generation.

Volunteering

Our volunteering programme encourages and enables colleagues across the UK and Ireland to contribute to the local community for up to 16 working hours per year. To support youth development, over 700 colleagues are STEM ambassador volunteers. By placing people from industry in classrooms around the UK, we hope to inspire the next generation to consider careers in Science, Technology, Engineering and Math (STEM).



British Red Cross and International Federation of the Red Cross

Our long-standing partnership with the British Red Cross and the International Federation of the Red Cross (IFRC) was first established in 1954. Our work strengthens risk reduction and developing emergency response mechanisms, helping reduce disaster and humanitarian risks for the most vulnerable areas.

Disaster Relief Alliance

We are an honorary partner of the Disaster Relief Alliance (DRA), whose contributions help with global disaster preparedness, as well as responding quickly to emergencies across the globe. Over the last year we have provided over £100,000 to support disasters and emergencies including the devastation of earthquakes in Türkiye (Turkey), Syria and Morocco.

Community resilience

We have supported Community Resilience Teams (CRT) in New South Wales, Australia, to train local government and community agency members in disaster preparedness. In Nepal, we have reached households with resources on how to prepare and adapt for disasters and climate change, with a special focus to engage young people. In Italy, we supported the creation of integrated urban disaster preparedness and response plans. In addition, we have supported the training of staff at Swiss Disaster Dog Association (REDOG) increasing their skills in missing buried person searches in Switzerland during times of crisis.

The Amos Bursary, UK

This year, we have partnered with The Amos Bursary to support young students of African Caribbean descent from Year 12, for up to five years while they are in higher education. As part of this programme, we will offer mentoring to support students when thinking about their aspirations and career paths.

Toré Institute, Brazil

We have developed an agroforestry educational programme in partnership with the Toré Institute, in a public school local to our Itatiaia manufacturing plant, to teach children about sustainability. The educational project teaches reforestation and composting, and gives children the opportunity to plant and grow their own food. As a continuation of this programme, since launch last year, we have restored one hectare of land close to the factory.

JLR Responsible business

The Responsible Business pillar forms the foundation of our sustainability strategy from which we aspire to achieve positive outcomes for the planet and its people. It is about getting the basics right and ensuring that what we do as a business is done ethically and with integrity.

Our work on responsible business focuses on four main areas of activity: legislation and regulation, strategy and governance, risk management, and disclosure and reporting.

Legislation and regulation

The legislation and regulation of environmental, social and governance topics is a rapidly evolving space. Ensuring that we are aware of relevant legislation and are putting the right steps in place to meet the requirements requires collaboration and input from many teams across the business. To ensure we stay ahead of emerging requirements, we established an ESG Legislation and Reporting working group that met 12 times this year.

Strategy and governance

There are high expectations from our stakeholders on what we do in relation to sustainability. To meet those expectations, it is crucial that we have the right sustainability strategies and governance in place across the business.

Risk management

The management of our environmental and social risks are embedded in our Company-wide enterprise risk management (ERM) process. We work with multiple stakeholders from across the organisation to identify and put plans in place to address the most significant environmental and social risks to our business.

Disclosure and reporting

There are increasing expectations for companies to disclose what they are doing to manage their impacts, risks and opportunities on a variety of sustainability related topics. Sharing our objectives and performance on environmental and social topics is crucial to meet the varying needs and expectations of our different stakeholders.

Diversity, Equity and Inclusion (D,E&I)

We believe we must reflect the diversity of the world in which our colleagues and clients live so that we can truly thrive and create a culture where our people feel supported equitably, can be their authentic selves, and allow fresh ideas, challenges, and opinions to be heard.

Five-year strategy with three internal targets

- Target 1: Globally, 30% of all senior leaders to be female, by 2026. FY24 performance is 18%
- Target 2: In the UK, 15% of all senior leaders to be from Black, Asian or Mixed Ethnicity background, by 2026. FY24 performance is 7%
- Target 3: Globally, for our Inclusion Index to reach over 80, by 2026. FY24 performance is 80

D,E&I achievements

In September 2023, we hosted our first ever Diversity, Equity and Inclusion Summit, welcoming participants in person, and online in 26 countries with 17 global inclusion hubs. This event was a celebration of the progress made to date in changing our culture, and also introduced the term 'equity' to our business. This has cemented our ambition to ensure that all colleagues are supported.

We continue to partner with the Business Disability Forum, working with them to inform our disability strategy. This will continue to be a key focus in FY25. We have also partnered with the Amos Bursary in supporting the sponsoring of young students of African Caribbean descent from Year 12, for up to five years whilst they are in higher education. As part of this we provide mentoring to help students think about what career paths they may want to pursue and support their ambitions.

Talent upskilling for the future

Building on the momentum from FY23 we continue to evolve the skills of our workforce through upskilling programmes that build critical capabilities internally. Our engineers continue their development journey through attendance at co-created and bespoke courses developed in partnership with a local university, and the establishment of a partnership to deliver Electrification Safety upskilling. Furthermore, our Data Fellowship has seen learners engage in practical application of data practices driving improvements into their everyday work. Transforming our ways of working to deliver modern luxury experiences for our house of brands has been a key focus. A predicted 3,000 colleagues will join our Digital Accelerator development journey in 2024, developing critical skills in end-to-end client engagement and sales.

Early careers

Early Careers and investment in apprentices, undergraduates and graduates continues to form a key foundation to our talent pool and a critical enabler of building skills for the future. Through hiring drives, we expect to see over 900 people join us in the UK and a further approximately 300 globally in 2024, a 20% increase on the previous year and a record intake for the Company.

Safety

The Zero Harm Metric takes into account all work-related incidents where an injury has occurred. Overall, the metric has been stable over the past year, following several years of decline. Improvements have been made in the internal reporting and data analysis structure over the last 12 months, which has led to greater ability to analyse trends in the data. The majority of accidents reported (~90%) are cuts, bruises or sprains/ strains, and have low harm potential. Lost time incidents continue to decline, showing an improving trend over the past year.

Our Safety Management System continues to be refined and improved to provide an effective framework for safety organisation. Following three years of monitoring visits, the Safety Management System was recertified to the ISO45001 standard in March 2023, demonstrating our ongoing commitment to achieving the highest standards of health, safety and well-being to our colleagues, partners and clients.

Responsible value chain

At TML, our commitment to sustainability extends throughout our supply chain. Launched in 2017, the 'Sustainable Supply Chain Initiative' sets a robust framework with a Supplier Code of Conduct, Environmental Procurement Policy, and Sustainability Guidelines. These ensure our partners prioritise ethical sourcing, environmental responsibility, and social well-being. This year, we leveraged the collaborative platform 'AIKYAM' (launched in 2024) to streamline these efforts. We assessed 483 suppliers against our ESG criteria, gaining valuable insights into their performance. Furthermore, the 2019 Dealer Sustainability Guidelines ensure our dealerships align with our goals. By actively evaluating and training suppliers and dealerships (353 assessed last year), we're building a responsible and sustainable supply chain ecosystem that underpins our vision for sustainable mobility.

AIKYAM

We have initiated a transformative journey alongside our suppliers known as 'AIKYAM', derived from the Sanskrit word for 'Unity'. This initiative serves as a testament to our commitment to sustainability by bringing together our vast network of suppliers under one cohesive framework to drive positive change.

BUSINESS PERFORMANCE

FY24 marked a dichotomous journey for the Indian Commercial Vehicle ('CV') industry as it shifted to BS6 Phase II emission norms. The first half started optimistically with a surge in sales volumes across most business segments. However, the second half saw a moderation in growth due to the combined impact of a high base, elections in five states and impending general elections. Driven by the government's focus on infrastructure development and a rise in e-commerce, construction, and mining activities, there was a consistent demand for heavy trucks and passenger carriers throughout the year, leading to a 3% and 28% increase in their sales volumes, respectively. Despite this, the overall CV industry experienced a modest growth of 2% in FY24 as demand in the ILMCV, SCV Cargo, and pick-up segments declined, highlighting the cyclical nature of industry.

With a continued emphasis on retail pull from the previous year, the CV Business aimed to further increase realizations by leveraging its superior BS6 Phase II product range, while also improving market share, especially in the HCV segment. With a synergised backend and a fully equipped front end, each business vertical is independently charting its growth path with clear milestones set to track financial and market outcomes.

CV business improved on key customer facing metrics. The business achieved the highest-ever Net Promoter Score ('NPS') of 72 while maintaining stable Brand Power. The business continues to maintain high levels on Composite Customer Satisfaction Index in FY24.

143 products and 700+ variants for passenger and cargo transportation were launched in FY24 to fulfil the growing demand for safer, smarter and greener mobility solutions.

CV exports remained subdued due to the prevailing economic situation as well as geopolitical events in most overseas markets. In FY24, the exports were 12% lower than in FY23, while revenue maintained its level of the previous year due to improved mix. Major drop was witnessed in the SAARC region (-10%) driven by Total Industry Volume ('TIV') softening, forex shortages, and liquidity crunch in the latter half of the year. MENA region witnessed 23% year-on-year ('y-o-y') in exports. The business retained and grew its market share and also sequentially improved margins across most markets.

CV business won several prestigious awards in FY24 acknowledging the excellence of products, services, solutions, initiatives and people, with few notable ones being Coveted National Energy Conservation Award from President of India, Golden Peacock National Quality Award, CII Industrial Innovation award, 7 Apollo Commercial Vehicle Magazine awards, Gunsan Grand Commerce & Industry Award and others.

Please refer to the paragraphs on Commercial Vehicles in the Management Discussion & Analysis section for detailed analysis.

Tata Motors Passenger Vehicles Limited ('TMPVL')

The Indian Passenger Vehicle ('PV') industry recorded the highest-ever annual wholesale volumes of 4.2 million units in FY24. After two strong years of growth, the industry growth moderated to 8.6% in FY24 over FY23. The growth has come on the back of strong traction for new product launches and emission-friendly powertrains, i.e., CNG vehicles and Electric vehicles. The segment shifts in the industry continues to gain momentum as the Sports Utility Vehicle ('SUV') segment grew 28% as compared to FY23 and now accounts for 51% of the overall industry volumes. The demand for hatches continues to decline as the volumes have decreased by 12% as compared to FY23.

In FY24, the PV business achieved the highest-ever volumes of 573,541 (including EV) units including 2,542 units of exports. The PV business further strengthened its position as the #3 player in the automobile industry. The PV business growth has been driven by the unique multi-powertrain strategy, strong response to new facelifts, reimagined front-end initiatives and manufacturing excellence.

Please refer to the paragraphs on Passenger Vehicles in the Management Discussion & Analysis section for detailed analysis.

Tata Passenger Electric Mobility Limited ('TPEML')

The Indian Electric Vehicle ('EV') industry witnessed 70% growth in FY24, with over 1 lakh units sales volume in the year as compared to 58 thousand units in FY23. The growth was driven by increased customer adoption of EVs, as barriers to adoption are increasingly being addressed. The year also saw launches of many new EV models by automobile manufacturers, as the competitive intensity in the industry continues to grow.

The EV business continues to consolidate its leadership position in the EV industry with 73,844 units of EV sales in FY24. The EV business took holistic steps to enable mainstream adoption of EVs. Tata Motors' EV product portfolio was widened with the introduction of Punch.ev, which opened up a new price point and bodystyle for customers. To drive a faster pace of growth for charging infrastructure, the EV Business team also conducted the first Charging Day event, which has brought about open collaboration with charging ecosystem players. The EV business also launched a new customer facing brand identity for EVs and EV-exclusive showrooms, to provide a differentiated and curated experience for EV customers. As a result of these initiatives, the EV business registered a growth of 48% in FY24 over FY23.

26. Overview of the entity's material responsible business conduct issues:

Please indicate material responsible business conduct and sustainability issues pertaining to environmental and social matters that present a risk or an opportunity to your business, rationale for identifying the same, approach to adapt or mitigate the risk along-with its financial implications, as per the following format:

The details of our Materiality Assessment and Risk management section can be accessed in the Integrated Annual Report of FY 2023-24.

Sr . No.	Material issue identified	Indicate whether risk or opportunity (R/O)	Rationale for identifying the risk / opportunity	In case of risk, approach to adapt or mitigate	Financial implications of the risk or opportunity (Indicate positive or negative implications)
1.	Carbon Emissions and Climate Change	Risk and Opportunity	Climate Change poses acute and chronic physical risks to our operations and value chain. Climate change also poses transition risks to our business, which include technological advances in products and evolving market and policy landscape changes.	TML is cognizant of the physical and transition risks posed by climate change in the short, medium and long term. We have set ourselves ambitious targets of achieving Net Zero GHG emissions by 2045 in CV business and 2040 in the PV business. We have set intermediate targets of achieving RE100 before the end of this decade and are committed to set interim Science Based Targets. Our roadmap, at the operations level and product level are fully aligned to our ambition and our intermediate targets.	An increase in the frequency of extreme weather events like storms, floods, heatwaves could have significant direct and indirect impact on our supply chain and our operations, thus adversely affecting our ability to fulfil demand. Evolving customer choices may lead to increased demand for low-carbon vehicles. Policy direction may require us to adopt low carbon manufacturing. Carbon pricing mandates may potentially enhance transition risk.

Sr . No.	Material issue identified	Indicate whether risk or opportunity (R/O)	Rationale for identifying the risk / opportunity	In case of risk, approach to adapt or mitigate	Financial implications of the risk or opportunity (Indicate positive or negative implications)
2.	Environmental regulations and compliance	Risk	We are subject to a rapidly evolving regulatory landscape with associated laws, regulations and policies that impact our facilities and vehicles. The transition away from traditional fossil fuels to renewable energy sources and the increasing pace of that transition creates compliance challenges. Notable to mention here are tailpipe emissions for automotive companies and wider compliance requirements for carbon emissions produced during manufacturing and other operations.	TML is ahead of the curve in meeting environment regulations and compliance as we view every regulatory norm change as an opportunity to add significant value to our products while meeting our stakeholder's aspirations. e.g. In the BS4 to BS6 transition, we have capitalised by refreshing our entire portfolio with significant product upgrades that add immense value throughout the product life-cycle.	We may incur additional compliance costs to avoid facing significant civil and regulatory penalties and our competitors may gain an advantage by adopting new emissions-reducing and fuel-efficient technologies before we do. Furthermore, we may incur significant reputational damage, which could materially impact our brands and sales, if we fail to meet environmental compliances. Regulatory and governmental policy changes may introduce additional operational costs in the form of carbon pricing and taxation.
3.	Supply Chain Sustainability	Risk and Opportunity	Consumers are increasingly interested in the sustainability of products they purchase, including the environmental and social impacts of the entire supply chain. Non-compliance of the supply chain with environmental, labour and ethical standards can lead to reputational damage, legal liabilities and operational disruptions.	We are dedicated to leading the way in Sustainable Mobility, with a focus on our supply chain. Initiatives like the 'Sustainable Supply Chain Initiative' (launched in 2017) and 'AIKYAM' a collaborative platform (introduced in 2023) underscore this commitment. We have established a robust framework including a Supplier Code of Conduct, Environmental Procurement Policy and Sustainability Guidelines covering governance, compliance, transparency, safety and human rights. Oversight mechanisms, led by the Executive Committee and Chief Purchasing Officer, ensure effective execution. Continuous review of procurement practices maintains alignment with sustainability goals.	Dependence on unsustainable suppliers may disrupt operations and harm product quality. Conversely, investing in a sustainable supply chain can yield long-term cost savings, enhance brand value and meet stakeholder expectations.

Sr . No.	Material issue identified	Indicate whether risk or opportunity (R/O)	Rationale for identifying the risk / opportunity	In case of risk, approach to adapt or mitigate	Financial implications of the risk or opportunity (Indicate positive or negative implications)
4.	IT and Cyber Security	Risk	We are exposed to IT risks since IT plays an important role in our operations, including the manufacturing, design of engineering processes. With our vehicles becoming increasingly technologically advanced and connected to the internet, they may become more susceptible to unauthorised access. We are also subject to risks related to legacy IT systems and system migration projects.	Information risk and cyber security are managed strategically. Through a cohesive programme of initiatives, we mitigate significant business risks while positively influencing business and brand value, growth, stability and overall success. We continue to drive measurable improvements in cyber defense and other core security capabilities (e.g., security ecosystem, supply chain security, risk governance and cultural change).	Successful cyber-attacks could cause significant business disruption, affecting our ability to deliver products and services to our customers. In extreme situations, this could affect the personal safety of our customers and colleagues. Regulatory and statutory requirements are increasing and failure to meet these obligations, such as the statutes of privacy and data protection law, could result in enforcement action, fines, reputational and financial damage. Any IT system migration, if not carried out within defined timelines or if implementation and outcome are not as desired, could materially adversely affect our operations, affect financial performance and cause reputation damage.
5.	Circularity	Opportunity	Circular business models enable creation of economic value at every stage of a product's lifecycle by ensuring products retain their original identity and function. Circular business models allow higher utilization, incentivize more reliable & durable products while enabling reuse and refurbishment of products and components even as they are designed.	TML has built a circular economy framework "Tatva", signifying our commitment to embedding circular economy principles across our entire organization. Tatva represents the essence of integrating circularity into every aspect of our business, aiming to reduce virgin material consumption, lower our material carbon footprint, extend life of our products & parts, as well as improving utilization of our products.	Designing for circularity is a key component of the Circular Economy. Maximum value is drawn when all the circular business models of Servitization, Longer durable life and Reuse are deployed in conjunction ensuring recurring revenues throughout the lifecycle.
